MINERS IN ROOSEVELT A FATAL DUEL IN FAVOR OF BILL

THREE SLAIN AND MANY ARE WOUNDED.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 17.—Order again reigns at Windber, after a night of riot and bloodshed, in which three lives were lost and a dozen men were seriously injured.

With daylight arrived the State constabulary ordered to Windber by Governor Pennypacker, and the town is now practically under martial law. No further trouble is at this time apprehended.

To avoid the possibility of a conflict of authority, the State police were sworn in as deputy sheriffs.

ARMED WITH RIFLES.
The miners did not return to work in great numbers this morning, although four mines of the company are in operation with limited forces.

A short time after 6 o'clock this morning Sheriff Begley and a force of deputies escorted the eleven men arrested last night to the street car line, and started them on their way to the jail at Somerset.

The officers were armed with rifles and formed a cordon around the prisoners, who were handcuffed together. Curtis Kester, the boy who was shot through the bowels, was erroneously

NEGROES IN KILL TWO, DANGER OF DEATH WOUND FOUR

SPRINGFIELD IN MIDST OF A RACE WAR.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 17.—A special writer for the Star, at Springfield, Mo., wiring his paper at 10 o'clock today on the situation at that hour, said:

While everything is calm on the surface, last night's occurrence has intensified the race hatred. There is a general feeling that the negroes must be cowed. If there is an outbreak it will not be against the jail, but against the negro quarters.

More arrests were made this morning of men accused of taking part in the lynching on Saturday night.

CAUSES EXCITEMENT.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 17.—Suppressed excitement pervaded all classes here on the opening of this, the fourth day, of Springfield's race war.

The arrest late yesterday of the half-breed of the mob, began to realize that the State and county officers had really combined in an effort to prosecute all offenders.

Then the people had again been incited with the mob spirit when it became generally known that another negro had been killed, this time by a white man in self defense. This tense situation, accused of complicity in Saturday night's lynching has had the effect of clearing the streets when the members of the mob, who had openly

MINISTER IS PUT ON TRIAL

HIS UTTERANCES FROM PULPIT QUESTIONED.

BATAVIA, N. Y., April 17.—The first trial for many years in the Protestant Episcopal Church is scheduled to begin here today, when the Rev. Algeron Sidney Crapsey, D. D., for twenty-five years rector of St. Andrews Church at Rochester, will be placed on trial before an ecclesiastical court, charged with utterances from the pulpit of that church and in print, which are alleged to be in violation of the tenets of the Protestant Episcopal faith.

In 1904 and 1905 Dr. Crapsey delivered a series of sermons. These were afterwards published, under his authority, under the title "Religion and Politics."

EXPRESSIS BELIEF.

The presentation against him contains sixteen extracts from this book, which are the basis for the charge that he intentionally expressed disbelief in these doctrines of the church:

The divinity of Christ, the conception of the Holy Ghost, the virgin birth, the bodily resurrection, and the Trinity.

A second specification under this first charge is that he made utterances of a like nature as recently as December 31 last, with the same intent to deny the same doctrines as enunciated in the apostles and Nicene creed.

SECOND CHARGE.

The second and last charge in the presentation is that Dr. Crapsey violated his ordination vows by failing to conform to the doctrines, discipline and scrupulous of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Under the second specification of the first charge, the utterances attributed to him in his December sermon are these:

First—Jesus was born of parents belonging to the middle class.

Second—He was born of a simple father and mother.

Third—He was the son of a carpenter.

Fourth—The fact that the early Christians preached a blind faith in the truth of the scriptures, whatever the things that Dr. Crapsey said are contrary to those doctrines, and did he so intend them to be.

It is understood that Dr. Crapsey's defense will hold that under a liberal interpretation of the creed he has not contradicted its doctrines.

If he is found guilty of intentional

HUNDREDS GATHER TO HONOR THE MEMORY OF WILLIAM FIELDWICK

Elks' Hall Cannot Accommodate Those From Every Walk in Life Who Join in Paying the Final Tribute to Respected Citizen.

EULOGY DELIVERED BY GEORGE W. REED

"William Fieldwick! William Fieldwick! William Fieldwick!"

Three times his name was called, but no answer came.

Then Exalted Ruler I. H. Clay, of the local order of Elks, proclaimed the death of William Fieldwick, one of its departed members.

The deceased, who at the time of his untimely death under the wheels of a Southern Pacific train last Sunday was track superintendent of the New California Jockey Club, of Emeryville, was buried today in the little plot in Mountain View Cemetery by the order, of which he was one of the most active members.

READS FROM RITUAL.

After the solemn calling of the name of the departed member, Exalted Ruler Clay read from the ritual the solemn words:

"In vain we call upon him; he has passed into that which is beyond the valley of the shadow of death. The places that have known him shall know him no more, and once again we are called upon to realize that in the midst of life we are in death; that he who watches over all our destinies, has the spirit of the departed under his watchful care."

"Brothers, we are here assembled to dwell upon the uncertainty and vanity of all human pursuits. The solemn duty which is before us today is of the broadest and most charitable nature that can actuate the gatherings of this order; as we are taught that charity extends beyond the grave, we are here assembled to commemorate the memory of one who has fallen in life's great battle, whom Death has claimed for its own, and who now sleeps that sleep which knows no waking."

"Brother Secretary, you will please call the name of our deceased brother."

CALLS THE NAME.

Secretary J. J. Hannifin Jr., then arose and proceeded to call the name of William Fieldwick, in accordance with the customs of the Elks' order.

The funeral service as performed over the remains of William Fieldwick were most impressive.

OBJECT IS WORTHY OF AID

The appeal for assistance by the Ladies' Relief Society, the orphanage of which was recently destroyed by fire, has not fallen on unwilling ears.

It is the purpose of the organization to rebuild the destroyed structure and to do so at the earliest possible moment.

This society, however, cannot do without the assistance of the public. The old building was insured and the members of the organization supposed they would receive at least $10,000 under their policies, but are now inclined to the idea that the amount will be so "adjusted" as to give a sum much smaller than they expected to get.

NEW BUILDING.

A new building at this time will cost a great deal more than did the burned building when it was erected several years ago.

The association will need from $12,000 to $15,000 to re-erect the home and stock it with furniture ready for business.

That sum the public is expected to make good because the home is absolutely necessary for the accommodation of children who are penniless and friendless, and who can be supported in no way save in a home of this kind.

The children's home has done a great deal of good in past years and citizens are unwilling to discontinue it, because of the children who are absolutely needed in all large cities of this kind.

These children are to be temporarily quartered in a large tent until the new structure can be completed.

The people of this city will not be satisfied, however, in that way. Something more substantial than a tent must be provided for the housing of these unfortunate children who have inspired the Ladies' Relief Society with a devotion and charity worthy of all praise.

The following telegram shows how strongly the charity appealed to Thomas H. Williams.

RIVAL COMPANIES IN COURT
OVER RIGHT TO BEDS IN SAN LEANDRO BAY.

The troubles of the oystermen engaged in the propagating of the bivalves in the tide lands of San Leandro bay, which have been quiescent for about a year past, are to be aired in the local courts, notice of the refusal of the Federal Courts to take jurisdiction of the matters involved having been filed with the county clerk this morning.

The original action was brought about by the Darbee & Immel Oyster and Land Company against the Smith Oyster Company, asking the courts to oust the Smith people from the lands claimed by it and also for $20,000 damages for the destruction of property belonging to it. It is asserted by the Darbee & Immel people that their rivals came into their lands and chopped down a wharf belonging to it and took forcible possession of their territory with the aid of armed men.

The quarrel of the two companies took on such proportions just about a year ago that both sides of the controversy employed guards for their premises and the movements of a clash between them was expected daily. At this juncture the Darbee & Immel people, through their attorney, Louis Goldstone, filed its action in the courts here. This move was met by a counter move on the part of the Smith people who through Attorneys Campbell, Nelson & Campbell, took the matter into the Federal Courts, claiming that the United States Government had jurisdiction of the property in question.

That phase of the controversy has been heard by Judge Morrow and finally disposed of, he refusing to take jurisdiction. His order made in the case yesterday and filed with County Clerk Cook this morning demands the hearing to the courts of Alameda county. In the meantime the oyster people have men stationed on their individual wharfs, erected in the bay, keeping watch on the movements of their rivals without, however, any hostile demonstrations being made, as both sides have been enjoined from taking any oysters from the lands in dispute.

reported dead during the night, but the physicians believe he has a fighting chance for recovery.
The other wounded are doing well. BLOODSHED.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 17.—After weeks of anxiety the situation brought about by the controversy of the coal miners with the operators culminated last night in a riot at Windber, near this city, which finally ended in bloodshed.

Three are dead and a number are injured and throughout the night the town was patrolled by armed guards. The shooting was brought on by an assault on the jail made by striking miners, who attempted to rescue comrades who had been placed under arrest.

The riot occurred in the early hours of the night and continued for several hours, working the residents to such a pitch that the night was one of terror.

THE DEAD.

The dead are principally foreigners and were miners who were out on strike. They are: Peter Martin, Antonio Mazuca, Paul Zilla, who was the leader of the mob, Curtis Keister, 19 years old, a bystander during the trouble, was shot through the bowels and will probably die.

FIRE ON MOB.

When the deputies fired on the mob they fled, leaving three of their number on the ground dead. The strikers refused to permit the undertakers to remove the bodies and they remained where they fell until an early hour this morning. The situation was so serious that Sheriff Begley was summoned from Somerset to take charge of affairs and an appeal was made to Governor Pennypacker for troops. At 8 o'clock this morning the conditions were more quiet and no further trouble was expected until later in the day.

The rioters were for the most part foreigners who had been celebrating Easter Monday, a holiday that has always been greatly observed in this section by them.

CARNIVAL ASPECT.

Yesterday the streets of Windber presented a carnival aspect. There was much liquor consumed and many men were intoxicated. When the trouble broke out the constabulary at Greensburg was immediately ordered to Windber and a special train was rushed toward the scene of the riot. A few miles west of this city, however, the train was blocked by a freight wreck and the troops did not reach Windber until 4 o'clock this morning. At that time the town was quiet and no demonstration was made.

MANY ALTERCATIONS.

There were many altercations and brawls throughout the day but no serious cases occurred and even a large mass meeting was held without any disorder until Deputy Sheriff McMullin appeared. The foreigners are apparently antagonistic toward McMullin and have an old standing animosity to him. He was for five years chief of police of Windber and during his administration, it is said, made himself unpopular with the miners.

THREATS ARE MADE.

The sight of McMullin infuriated them, and he was looked upon as a spy. Many of the men rushed for him and threats were made against his life, and he fled, taking refuge in the home of Charles Davis.

The crowd, however, gave chase and soon a mob of 2500 surrounded the Davis home and stoned it until the occupants were obliged to seek refuge with neighbors.

Following the riot about twenty of the miners were placed under arrest and held in jail. Under the leadership of Paul Zilla, who was shot dead subsequently, the mob assailed the jail, throwing stones and any missile that was at hand.

The deputies surrounded the jail and with the aid of the fire department tried to restore order. The mob was persistent and refused to disperse and go home, and closing in on the jail, began to assault the deputies.

The latter tried to stop the onslaught with bayonets and when it seemed that the deputies and firemen would go down before the infuriated men the deputies fled.

This was not done, however, before knives and revolvers appeared in the hands of the strikers. But one volley was fired and at the sound of the guns the mob broke and fled.

TROUBLE EXPECTED.

More serious trouble was expected to occur when the strikers appeared this morning and saw the State officers in charge. There were no developments, however, up to 8 o'clock but there was a feeling of anxiety as to the action that would be taken when the strikers saw their comrades taken from the jail to the lodge of the order.

Somewhat taken from the jail to the lodge of the order. The Great Reap-er has come along and taken his soul to the lodge of the order.

"Words cannot express the feelings that fill my breast upon this occasion. He was faithful in everything which he was called upon to do. He was faithful to the civil duties in the little town where he resided. No one can truly call him a saint. He was loved by all his associates. In all walks of life. All who knew him will miss him as no one will be missed from their midst for many years to come."

"His hand was always stretched forth to the appeal of those who were distressed. Many a man will remember the deeds of unselfish charity which have been performed by departed friend."

SEND SILENT PRAYER.
"To belong to the order of Elks is to belong to an order which is a credit to all men. Every one of our number will remember William Fieldwick and many a silent prayer will go up that his memory will last forever."

"Years ago, when our temple was being built, we asked our members to subscribe for stock. After a while, a small dividend was sent to him. My dividend comes from the love and affection of my brothers in the order."

I gave that money to the boys for the benefit of the order. I do not want any other dividends than I have said."

REMAINS IN MEMORY.
"William Fieldwick will be a man whose place will be a hard one to fill," continued the speaker. "In a short time all that remains of Brother Fieldwick will be laid to rest in a beautiful plot out on the hillside among the flowers. The strong Elk, looking out toward the Golden Gate, will keep a faithful watch upon our departed, so that his memory will never be forgotten."

Our brother, who effected so beautiful an exemplification of the manly life. In this great world of sorrow and care there is nothing, except the brotherly love, which extends from one to another. The reason taught by this man's life is one of the most beautiful.

The committee recently met in Chicago and sought to prepare a bill which should be at once protective of policyholders and fair and just to insurance companies and which should prevent the graver evils and abuses of the business and at the same time forestall any and all possible legislation which would be more harmful than beneficial.

The proposed bill is discussed at length in the accompanying letter by Superintendent Thomas E. Drake of the Department of Insurance in the District of Columbia. I very earnestly hope that the congress at the earliest opportunity will enact this bill into law with such changes as its wisdom may dictate.

I have no expert familiarity with the business but I have entire faith in the right judgment and single-minded purpose of the insurance convention which met at Chicago and the committee of that convention which formulated the measure herein advocated.

We are not to be pardoned if we fail to take every step in our power to prevent the possibility of the repetition of such scandals as those that have occurred in connection with the insurance business as disclosed by the Armstrong committee.

of the most beautiful. To every one he was a gentleman and faithful. Fidelity was exemplified in his life stronger than any one characteristic. Let this departed brother's life be an example to us all. Keep his memory green forever. And while amid these beautiful flowers and his sorrowful friends, his soul has gone to the grand lodge of the hereafter, let us see that his memory shall be kept green forever. Remember the noble character of our dear old friend; remember that you all should so live that when the last summons comes you go like our departed friend, unshattering, and lie down to pleasant dreams."

SONGS ARE SUNG.
After this touching tribute was made by Mr. Reed, exalted ruler, and after reading passages from the ritual, came singing of sweet hymns by the chorus, which was composed of Mrs. Carroll, Nicholson, contralto; Mrs. Silpha Rugles Jenkins, soprano; Mrs. W. H. Ford, accompanist. The first hymn rendered was "Come Unto Me."

The casket lay in state in a hollow square in the center of the lodge auditorium. The bier was placed upon a great mat of Easter lilies. The platform was a mass of beautiful floral pieces. In front of the casket was a table draped with the national emblem upon which rested an immense set of Elks' antlers.

Perhaps the most touching feature was the last tribute paid to the dead by the members of the order.

At a word from the exalted ruler over 300 men wended their way sadly past the coffin and deposited thereon the little bouquet of violets and the ivy leaf.

FOR LAST TIME.
Then the casket was opened and all looked for the last time upon the features of their departed friend, William Fieldwick.

The honorary pallbearers were: T. H. Williams, W. H. Christie, J. T. Doyle, John J. Quinn, F. J. Steers and F. W. Treat.

Through a crowd in front of the Elks' temple the body of the deceased, after a brief funeral procession, was taken to Mountain View Cemetery, while the great Elk keeps his silent vigil.

CANNED GOODS IN BELGIUM
Consul McNally of Liege writes that until the past few years Belgium was compelled to draw on France for her canned goods of any description. There have been large importations from the United States, but these were of little importance. This industry, however, has been created in Belgium with the result that the domestic goods are put upon the market at a price better within the reach of the people. The industry is in an imperfect condition and the market is yet open for the introduction of American canned products, which enjoy a reputation of merit throughout Belgium.

GUARANTEED LIQUOR CURE
No Detention from Work or Loss of Time—Desire for Drink Destroyed by Orrine.

When one of our most reliable druggists makes a positive statement that he will guarantee to cure the liquor habit if Orrine is used in accordance with directions or refund the money, it shows his great faith in the treatment. It is in this way that Orrine is sold by the leading druggist in nearly every city and town. In every city a registered guarantee which entitles you to a refund of your money if Orrine fails to effect a cure.

No other cure for the liquor habit has been sold in this way and the remarkable guarantee shows how much superior Orrine is to the ordinary sanitarium or home treatment. There is no detention from work or loss of time when Orrine is used. It destroys the desire for liquor, so that the drink will not be missed, and also cures the deranged digestion, weakened nerves and other ill effects of excessive drinking, restoring the patient to perfect health.

Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1, the secret remedy which can be used in food or drink without the knowledge of the patient; No. 2 for those who take the remedy of their own free will. Both forms are absolutely guaranteed to cure or they will cost nothing. Treatise on how to cure drunkenness free on request.

Orrine is sold by the Orrine Drug Company, Washington, D. C. The price of their form is $1 a box, making the cost of the complete cure less than the tenth what is usually charged at sanitariums, with a guarantee that the expense will be nothing unless a cure is gained.

Are the People Entitled to Know the Composition of Remedies?

There is one man who stands out honestly and squarely upon the merits of his well-known remedies. Dr. R. V. PIERCE, who is author of one of the best-known medical books, the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," which has reached its 66th Edition, over Two Million One Hundred Thousand Copies having been printed, and who is head of one of the best Sanitariums and Surgical Institutes in the country, was the first physician to use pure, triple-refined glycerine in the preparation of his vegetable compounds instead of alcohol.

Nearly Forty Years Ago,

Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine of proper strength is a better solvent and preservative of the active medicinal principles residing in most of our indigenous or native medicinal plants than is alcohol. As its use is entirely unobjectionable, while alcohol as is well-known when used even in small portions, for a protracted period, does lasting injury to the human system, especially in the case of delicate women and children. He found that the glycerine, besides being entirely harmless, possesses intrinsic medicinal properties, of great value. Its nutritive properties, Dr. Pierce believes, far surpass those of cod-liver oil, entitling it to favorable consideration in all cases of incipient consumption, especially when it is combined with the active medicinal principles extracted from Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Stone root, Golden Seal root and Bloodroot, as in his ready put-up medicine the "Golden Medical Discovery." Besides its superior nutritive properties, glycerine is a very valuable demulcent and thereby greatly enhances the remedial action of all the foregoing roots in the cure of severe coughs, bronchitis, throat, laryngeal and other kindred affections of the air-passages and lungs. In all "wasting diseases," where there is loss of flesh and gradual "running-down" of the system, the glycerine certainly plays an important part in lessening the breaking-down and wasting of tissue, and in promoting assimilation and increase of bodily weight. It is, in Dr. Pierce's estimation, a powerful reconstructive agent in all cases of impaired vitality and especially valuable when associated and combined with such superior alternatives and tonics as in "Golden Medical Discovery." Its wonderful solvent properties also play an important part in the cure of gall-stones, severe constipation, with dry and almost impacted stools. Glycerine is also one of the very best anti-ferments and as such counteracts the excessive fermentation of foods in the stomach, present in most cases of indigestion or dyspepsia. Thus the pain, belching of noxious gas, bloating and other disagreeable symptoms are overcome and the Stone root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and other ingredients of "Golden Medical Discovery" are greatly assisted in their action in completing a cure. As will be seen from the writings of Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and other high authorities, these agents can confidently be depended upon for the most positive, curative action in all atonic, or weak, states of the stomach, accompanied with distressing indigestion or dyspepsia. Read from the writings of the authorities quoted, under headings of Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Bloodroot, Queen's root and Mandrake root and you will find that all these ingredients are recommended as remedies for indigestion or dyspepsia. All are ingredients of "Golden Medical Discovery," combined in such proportions that each enhances the curative action of all the others.

GOLDEN SEAL ROOT

(Hydrastis).

Professor Roberts Bartholow, M. D., was the first of the old school of medicine to publicly recommend (in 1887) Hydrastis—or Golden Seal root. At that time Dr. Pierce had used this preparation as a principal ingredient in his "Golden Medical Discovery" for over twenty years. Since then Hydrastis has become of National reputation as a remedy for mucous membrane diseases, especially in throat ailments and in inflammatory conditions of the lining membranes.

GOLDEN SEAL ROOT

(Hydrastis Canadensis).

Dr. Roberts Bartholow, Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, a recognized authority on Materia Medica and Therapeutics, says of Hydrastis (Golden Seal): "Very useful as a stomachic tonic (stomach tonic) and in atonic dyspepsia. Cures gastric catarrh (catarrh of stomach) and headache accompanying same. In catarrh of the gall duct and jaundice, it is of especial utility. Constipation, dependent upon different deficient secretions, with hard and dry stools, may be overcome by the remedy. Chronic catarrh of the intestines, even if it has proceeded to ulceration, is remarkably benefited by Hydrastis."

The foregoing is certainly a wonderfully strong endorsement of one of Dr. Pierce's chief ingredients used in his "Golden Medical Discovery."

From "Organic Medicines," by Grover Coe, M. D., of New York, we extract the following: "Hydrastis (Golden Seal) exerts an especial influence over mucous surfaces. Upon the liver it acts with equal certainty and efficacy. As a cholagogue (liver invigorator), it has few equals. In affections of the spleen, and abdominal viscera generally, it is an efficient and reliable remedy. Also in scrofula, glandular diseases generally, cutaneous eruptions, indigestion, debility, diarrhoea and dysentery, constipation, piles and all morbid and critical discharges."

QUEEN'S ROOT

(Sillingtonia Sylvania).

Prof. John K'ing, M. D., says: "An alternative (blood-purifier) unsurpassed by any other of the known alternatives; most successful in skin diseases, such as eczema and scrofulous affections. Beneficial in bronchial affections—permanently cures bronchitis—relieves irritations—an important cough remedy—coughs of years' standing being cured. Aids in blood-making and nutrition, and may be taken without harm for long periods."

R. Bartholow, M. D., L. L. D., says: "Sillingtonia has long been in repute as an alternative and employed for scrofula in its various forms. Most satisfactory results have been obtained from its use in syphilitic affections. Recommended in habitual constipation, torpidity of liver, jaundice, piles, ascites (dropsy), due to hepatic (liver) changes or obstructions."

STONE ROOT (Collinsonia Canadensis).

"Alternative, tonic, stimulant. Valuable in laryngitis—'ministers' sore throat.' In diseases of stomach and intestines—improves appetite, promotes flow of gastric juices, tonic effect upon organs involved. A good remedy in indigestion, dyspepsia, chronic gastritis, increasing the secretion from kidneys and skin."—American Dispensary.

"There is no doubt of Collinsonia's action on the urinary organs. It has cured disorders supposed to be due to gravel, catarrh of the bladder and dropsy from deficient action of the kidneys. Cures irritation of the cardiac (heart) nerves, with rapid, regular irregular beating. Useful in valvular diseases."—Edwin M. Hale, D. Prof. Materia Medica in Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago.

Wm. Paine, M. D., Author of Paine's Epitome of Medicine, New School Practice of Medicine and of the Medical Properties and Uses of Concentrated Medicines, writing of Collinsonia (the active medicinal principle residing in Collinsonia Canadensis, or Stone root), says: "I, not long since, had a patient who was so much oppressed with a valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up-stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonia, and is now attending to his business. Heretofore physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonia unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure." He further says: "In a case of persistent ascites (dropsy), where the ordinary remedies fail to afford anything more than a temporary relief, Collinsonia produced a permanent cure."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., in his treatise entitled "Specific Medication," says: "Collinsonia (Stone root), is a specific in 'ministers' sore throat' (chronic laryngitis)." He continues: "It proves beneficial in other cases of chronic laryngitis, in chronic bronchitis and phthisis (consumption), allaying irritation and checking cough. It also exerts a favorable influence upon the digestive processes, improving the appetite, facilitating digestion and acting as a general tonic. It passes off through the urinary tract. I regard it as one of the most direct and valuable agents of the Materia Medica and one that will give satisfaction to whoever employs it."

The above are strong endorsements of one of the most valuable ingredients contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," viz., Collinsonia, or Stone root. Its virtues, however, are not overestimated, as we can attest from our experience and observation in watching the beneficial action of the "Discovery" in heart affections, laryngitis, tracheitis, incipient consumption and other ailments noted above.

"Collinsonia stimulates the stomach, acts as a tonic to enfeebled muscular structure of the heart and has a direct influence upon atonic (weak) and dilated or otherwise impaired conditions of the veins. It is a specific remedy in piles. In catarrhal gastritis, where the circulation is defective, it either alone or combined with hydrastis, is of first importance. They increase the appetite and greatly improve the digestion and assimilation of food. Good for neural pains and piles of the pregnant woman. It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence. Excellent in the bicycle heat, in rheumatic inflammation and clergymen's sore throat."—F. Ellingwood, M. D.

REMARKS: We can not refrain, at this point, from calling attention to the wonderfully beneficial effects produced by Stone root in valvular and other diseases of the heart, as described by Drs. Paine, Hale and Ellingwood. The latter, it will be noted, says of it, "is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence." He especially recommends it for the so-called "bicycle heart."

or, in other words, for all those cases of irregular heart action caused by over exertion. The wonderful regulating and strengthening effect produced upon the heart by "Golden Medical Discovery" is accounted for by the presence in it of the active medicinal principle of Stone root, and is also partly due to the fact that the Golden Seal root contained in it. The Golden Seal root is a most valuable heart tonic, and in fact exerts a tonic effect upon all of the muscular tissue of the system, and, naturally it follows that the heart, being mostly composed of muscular tissue, is favorably affected and strengthened thereby.

BLACK CHERRYBARK (Prunus Virginiana).

Roberts Bartholow says: "Wild Cherry bark is an excellent stomach tonic; it has long been held in great esteem in domestic practice as a remedy in catarrhal states of the bronchial mucous membrane and in phthisis (consumption)." "The syrup is much used as an ingredient in cough mixtures."

"The tonic influence of this agent is more markedly apparent when it is administered in disease of the respiratory apparatus (breathing organs) of a subacute (mild) or (lingering) chronic character. A common remedy for chronic coughs, the cough of nervous patients without apparent cause; is popular in the treatment of mild cases of palpitation. Palpitation from disturbed condition of the stomach is directly relieved by it."—F. Ellingwood, M. D.

BLOODROOT (Sanguinaria Canadensis).

"Stimulates digestive organs, increases action of heart and arteries—stimulant and tonic. Very valuable as a cough remedy—acts as a sedative—further valuable as an alternative."—American Dispensary.

"Overcomes congestion of the lungs, after severe cold in the chest from exposure. Given in bronchial coughs, in membranous croup. It equalizes the circulation of the entire system, inducing warmth in the skin and in the extremities. It will assist in overcoming hepatic action (solidification) of lung structure and restoring normal tone and normal functional action."—F. Ellingwood, M. D.

"Has most frequently been employed in incipient phthisis, bronchitis, influenza, pneumonia, croup, asthma, diphtheria, in scarlatina, dyspnoea (short breath), dyspepsia, hydrothorax (dropsy of the chest) and jaundice."—Edwin M. Hale, M. D.

"Its most important therapeutical effects are witnessed in diseases of the respiratory (breathing) organs. Used in croup, in functional amenorrhoea (absence of menses), chronic nasal catarrh and nasal polyp."—R. Bartholow, M. D.

MANDRAKE ROOT (Podophyllum Peltatum).

"Certain, sure cathartic; leaves bowels in improved condition. A gentle stimulant tonic; improves the appetite. Particularly valuable in dyspepsia, gastritis and intestinal catarrh. Beneficial in some affections of bladder."—American Dispensary.

"Recommended in biliousness with marked inactivity of the liver, yellow skin and conjunctiva (eyes), constipation, dry stools and bloated bowels, highly colored urine containing uric acid, or urates in great excess. Given in jaundice, gall-stones, piles, is an alternative in plethoric (full blooded) conditions, in skin diseases and in scrofula and syphilis."—F. Ellingwood, M. D.

WOMAN IS GIVEN FREEDOM

MRS. MARTHA O'DELL-HENDERSON IS DISCHARGED BY POLICE JUDGE.

Following a lengthy discussion of the various phases of the case by a half dozen lawyers, Martha O'Dell Henderson, charged by John Horn, farmer, with obtaining money under false pretenses was set free yesterday by Police Judge Samuel, because of the fact that, in the opinion of the court, the prosecution had failed to prove its charge.

Mrs. Martha O'Dell, who is now by marriage Mrs. Henderson, was accused of "skinning" John A. Horn out of $500 by means of a matrimonial scheme. Horn, it is said, tried to persuade Mrs. O'Dell to settle her troubles for $275 cash. Police Judge Samuel asked to be informed of Harris' attempt to settle the case out of court for $275. "Is it not a fact," asked Attorney Mann, representing Mrs. O'Dell, addressing Horn, on the witness stand, "that you attempted to extort $275 from Mrs. O'Dell on the promise that you would dismiss the present suit and the civil suit pending in San Francisco?"

objected to the question, which was sustained.

"Did you not suggest," asked Mrs. O'Dell's attorney, "that you would settle for $275?"

"What is the purpose of this cross-examination?" asked the court. "If there is anything of that kind going on in this court, I wish to know it." "I do not think that it would be fair," said Judge Stetson, also representing Mrs. O'Dell, "to make us disclose the line of defense but we are certainly opposed to having the police court made a collection agency. After the examination we will be pleased to put your honor into possession of the facts."

Judge Samuel refused to allow the matter of the $275 to go into trial, and this closed the incident. Fremont Willett, who is said at one time to have been the favored suitor for Mrs. O'Dell's hand, while she was advertising for husbands was put on the stand by the prosecution.

MILLER MAKES SCORE FOR DIAMOND RING

BERKELEY, April 17.—In a hotly-contested game of ten-pins the Buffaloes of Berkeley in three straight games last night on W.H.'s alleys. The handicap of sixty-five pins a game which the local team had to give their opponents was too great for the home team to overcome. Miller of the Buffaloes made the highest score of the tournament making 239 in one game. He will thus be in line for the first prize of a diamond ring.

PIONEER JOINS MAJORITY.

EDSON ADAMS IN POWER BUSINESS

OAKLANDER INTERESTED IN BIG DEAL IN THE NORTH.

Edson F. Adams, the Oakland capitalist, who is heavily interested in the Mono Power Company, was in Tonopah this week. To a Bonanza representative Mr. Adams stated that his company is now preparing to bring power into Tonopah and the other districts of Southwestern Nevada. "The source of its power will be the Owens River, in Inyo county, California," said Mr. Adams. By the formation of this company all interests on the Owens River between Round Valley and the Forest reserve, covering a distance of some five or six miles, have been harmonized, including the interests of the Owens River Power and Water Company.

"Something over a year ago the survey for the pole line was made from the river to Tonopah and Goldfield, the distance from Tonopah being 94 miles. Owing to the objections made by the reclama project in the United States, which was at time considering a reclama project in the Owens River valley, the approval of rights of way for pole lines over government lands was held up until consideration, which was delayed the work of proceeding with the installation of the plant. Work has now been commenced vigorously on the preliminary plan, which will develop power for running of compressors, also the necessary dams and other improvements. "There are now twenty-five men at work upon these preliminary matters under the direction of W. H. Leffingwell, a very experienced engineer. The tunnel cutting off a bend in the river is now being driven a distance of some two hundred feet, giving a fall of over 30 feet. This fall will be utilized to furnish power to run the compressors for the drills to be used in the running of the main tunnel, which will be about one mile long, including adits. This tunnel will have a cement lining, and being underground, will be proof against accident, as would not be the case with open cut, pipes and ditches, which would be exposed to various dangers, any one of which would cause a shutting down of the power plant, when completed, without notice. "The method of conveying the water by tunnel under the bank of the river and parallel to it, is the same method as is used by the Kern River Power Company, which furnishes current to the city of Los Angeles, and is deemed the most efficient method now in use. "The first plant constructed will have a capacity which will produce over 5000 horse power at a distance from the plant of over 90 miles. The time required to build this plant and transmission lines will not exceed one year. It is proposed to build the plant and lines in the most substantial manner, thus insuring constant current, which is most necessary in the operation of mining properties."—Bonanza.

BANK OFFICIALS ARE SUBPOENAED

The trial of the McGaughey divorce

suit now pending before the courts here is apt to necessitate the closing of the San Francisco Savings and Loan Society, according to Attorney Sidney Van Wyck, unless he can get some of the witnesses subpoenaed by Mr. McGaughey excused. He appeared in Judge Ellsworth's department of the Superior Court yesterday for this purpose, but owing to the judge's absence was unable to have his request passed upon.

Mr. McGaughey, through his attorney, A. Heynemann, has subpoenaed the president, vice-president, treasurer and secretary of the bank in which his client is employed with the result that they will have to close the bank as all these officers are required to be here. If they want to know what Mr. McGaughey's salary is, certainly one of the men would be sufficient to show that. They also want the cashier to bring all the books of the bank into court. It looks to me like a preposterous proposition and I intend to call the matter to the attention of the court."

PIEDMONT RINK.

Despite the approach of warm weather, the Piedmont Rink was filled with a gay throng of pleasure seekers, who found plenty of enjoyment in whirling to and fro and round and round on the glistening surface of the smooth floor, to the accompaniment of the band's rhythmical strains. The floor was well enough filled last night to make the skating near perfect as it can be brought and the flushed faces and laughing eyes of the merry whirlers gave expert testimony on that point.

It is expected that there will be one or two "hook" games at the Piedmont Rink before this week is over, and Manager Epfinger is making numerous other plans for the future enjoyment of his patrons.

Chief among these is the masquerade carnival, the last one of the season—which is to be given Thursday evening, April 26. There are to be twelve costly prizes, picked out with reference to their beauty and attractiveness, "and without looking at the tags," as Mr. Epfinger says. Several prizes are being prepared for this event, though the details of the same have not yet been given out. Mr. Epfinger says they will be a surprise and no less a thorough delight.

At the last masquerade, which was such a decided success that no one needs to be apprised of that fact, since it seemed that nearly every one was there, the array of costumes was so varied and beautiful that the judges had no little difficulty in selecting the winners of the different prizes. Doubtless this affair will even surpass in brilliancy the other one, since this is to be the closing one of the season.

Tonorrow night the rink is to be closed to the public, because of a prior lease given to the Wednesday Night Club.

A WOMAN DOCTOR

Was Quick to See that Coffee Poison Was Doing the Mischief.

A lady tells of a bad case of coffee poisoning and tells it in a way so simple and straightforward that literary skill could not improve it. "I had neuralgic headaches for 12 years," she says, "and have suffered untold agony. When I first began to have them I weighed 140 lbs, but they brought me down to 110. I went to many doctors and they gave me only temporary relief. So I suffered on, till one day in 1904, a woman doctor told me to drink Postum Food Coffee. She said I looked like I was coffee poisoned. "So I began to drink Postum and I gained 15 pounds in the first few weeks and am still gaining, but not so fast as at first. My headaches began to leave me after I had used Postum about two weeks—long enough I expect to get the coffee poison out of my system. "Now that a few months have passed since I began to use Postum Food Coffee, I can gladly say that I never know what a neuralgic headache is like any more, and it was nothing but Postum that cured me. Before I used Postum I never went out alone; I would get bewildered and would not know which way to turn. Now I get alone and my head is as clear as a bell. My brain and nerves are stronger than they have been for years." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason. Read the little book, 'The Road to Wellville,' in

Well Known Letter Carrier Quietly Weds Without Consent of Wife's Mother.

A license for the marriage of D. J. Hallahan, the letter carrier, and Miss Edith Percival, both of this city, was issued by the county clerk of Marin county at San Rafael this morning. It is believed that by this time, Mr. Hallahan and Miss Percival have become husband and wife. The former home of the bride is at 103 Telegraph avenue in this city. The license was issued about 10 o'clock on the application of Mr. Hallahan and the bride-elect.

They were attended by a lady and gentleman from the city, whose names, however, were not confided to the officiating clerk. Mr. Hallahan took few of his old associates into his confidence, and as a consequence, the news of his mating will occasion surprise among hosts of his acquaintances and friends. In his request for the marriage license, Mr. Hallahan gave his age as thirty-seven years and that of his bride as eighteen years.

THIRD TRIAL FOR FUNERAL OF LATE M'NULTY

The third trial of Lester C. McNulty, charged by Dorothy Olsen of Berkeley with having committed an assault upon her, was set for trial this morning by Judge T. W. Harris for June 25th. McNulty was in court with his attorney A. L. Frick and formally waived his right to trial within the sixty day limit.

Two juries have failed to agree upon a verdict in his case and for a third time his fate is to be submitted to a jury of twelve men. The number of mistrials of cases within the past few months has been unprecedented. With McNulty and Percy Pembroke now going to their third trials, Otto L. Hassel's second trial began today and A. C. Webb Jr. and Henry A. Logan waiting their second trials the county has been put to a vast expense in the prosecution of criminal cases since the first of the year.

WIFE'S NIGHT OF TERROR

During the last forty-eight hours Mrs. Mary Sadler, residing at 270 Fifth street, says she spent a strenuous time in preventing her husband, Walter B. Sadler, a carpenter, from murdering her. On Saturday night she states she was subjected to a severe beating and had to take refuge on the roof of her humble home. She remained there until the early hours of the morning, fearing that her drink-crazed husband would find her at any moment and carry out his threats to murder her.

When early dawn appeared Mrs. Sadler, rep: from her hiding place and sought the protection of the police. She had been arrested on a charge of drunkenness and also disturbing the peace. He was arraigned before Police Judge Smith this morning and his trial set for April 22. The wife stated that after the night of terror she spent that she thought her spouse should be put under bonds to keep the peace.

MAN AND WIFE IN CONSPIRACY

The trial of E. H. Gale on a charge of breaching P. J. O'Connell with a revolver was begun this morning before Judge T. W. Harris. According to the story of O'Connell, he went to Gale's room by request, and had barely taken his seat when Gale pulled a pistol out of his pocket and threatened to shoot him unless he made amends for having insulted his wife.

ROSEBEN WINS HANDICAP

NEW YORK, April 18.—Roseben, backed down from 3 to 11 to 5, won the Carter Handicap here today in a terrific drive by a head from Southern Cross, a long shot, with Red Knight third. Roseben, in winning, creates a new track record for the distance—seven furlongs—stepping the distance in 1:25 1-5. Froonhackle won the Montgomery handicap; Lady Navarrese second, Rapid Water third.

AMERICANS AT NAPLES

ATHLETES ARRIVE WITH ONLY TWO SUFFERING FROM ACCIDENT.

NAPLES, April 17.—The North German Lloyd steamship Barbarossa, from New York April 3 and Gibraltar April 13, having on board the American athletes who are entered to take part in the Olympic games which begin at Athens April 22, arrived here today. The men who were injured while crossing the Atlantic, with the exception of James S. Mitchell of the New York Athletic Club, the weight-putter and hammer-thrower, and Harry L. Hillman Jr., of the New York Athletic Club, runner, have recovered. Mitchell's arm is still in a sling and may interfere with his competing, and Hillman's left leg is still bandaged. The latter is improving and expects to compete at Athens.

The Americans landed soon after the Barbarossa's arrival. Some of them visited the scenes of desolation in the vicinity of Mount Vesuvius, but the majority of the athletes, accompanied by their trainers, practiced running, jumping, etc., in order to test their condition after the voyage. All were in good spirits and insisted that the accidents would not appreciably affect their strength.

KNEE SWOLLEN.

Hillman's injured knee is slightly discolored and swollen. It was treated on board the steamer by Dr. Catarus of the New York Athletic Club. The doctor massaged the injured part, which greatly assisted in liberating the joint and restoring the strength of the tendons.

Mitchell suffered the most from the sea voyage, remaining in bed three days after his dislocated left shoulder had been set by the ship's surgeon. He was able to go about with the rest of the American party and landed here today with his arm in a sling. Although Mitchell considers himself able to make a showing at Athens, and says he certainly will try for a prize, the other members of the team fear that he is badly handicapped. Referring to the injuries sustained by Mitchell and himself, Hillman said:

ONLY SIX HIT.

"Only six out of thirty-two of us were struck by the wave and four of these six are again in fine trim. Only Mitchell and myself are slightly ailing. My right knee is bandaged, and a little stiff, but it has been greatly improved by massage treatment. I hardly think it will interfere with my running. I took a practice jog on deck yesterday without any pain and had easy jogs today without difficulty. I hope to be entirely fit in a few days. The main drawback is the interruption of practice."

The Duke of Orleans, who boarded the steamer at Gibraltar. The duke and duchess of Aosta and many other notables were at the pier to welcome the Italian and French national athletes.

BUNNELL WILL IS FILED

The will of the late James S. Bunnell, who was for many years general auditor of Wells Fargo & Company, was filed for probate with the County Clerk this morning. The value of the estate is not definitely known, but exceeds $10,000, and those who knew the deceased say it will go close to the $100,000 mark.

The heirs of the deceased are his widow, two daughters and a son, all of whom live at the Bunnell home at the corner of Ridge road and Highland place in Berkeley. The will is as follows: "I, James S. Bunnell, of the city of Berkeley, county of Alameda, State of California, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament. 'I hereby revoke all former wills by me at any time made."

"I give and bequeath to my daughter, Louise M. Keeler, wife of Charles A. Keeler of Berkeley, the sum of $5000. 'I give and bequeath to my daughter, Katherine C. Bunnell, the sum of $5000. 'I give and bequeath to my son, Alexander S. Bunnell, the sum of $5000. 'All the rest and residue of my estate, both real and personal, I give, bequeath and devise to my wife, Catherine T. Bunnell."

"I have disposed of my property as herein provided because I have complete confidence in the wisdom and discretion of my said wife and know that she has at heart the best interests and the welfare of our children and will do as well by them as I could or would if living."

BATTLED TO THE DEATH WITH AXES

Aged Veterans Engage in a Quarrel Which Ends in a Murder.

NAPA, April 17.—William Voss, an aged member of the Veteran's Home at Yountville, killed Joseph Johnson, another veteran, this morning at Cooper Place, on the Dry Creek road, near Napa.

Voss and Johnson have been working for a few days for A. Ghirardi as wood choppers. A quarrel arose between the two men and both picked up axes and engaged in a fight. After a fierce struggle Voss struck his opponent on the head with his axe and Johnson fell. He died from the effects of the blow a short time afterward.

Constable Naramore of Yountville placed Voss under arrest and Sheriff Dunlap and Coroner Kyser of Napa have gone up to the scene of the killing.

Coroner Kyser will hold an inquest today at Yountville and Voss will be brought to Napa this evening and placed in the county jail. There was a witness to the fight between the two veterans which resulted in Johnson's death.

MAYOR ON NEW PEMBROKE TO BE TRIED AGAIN

Mayor Mott gave the following interview today in reference to the proposed new charter:

"The question of amending our city charter is a most important one, and should have very careful consideration. The organic law of a municipality plays such an important part in a city's growth and development that it should be framed with the utmost care, and with as full a knowledge as possible of the experiences of the other cities which have in the last few years been experimenting with new ideas in municipal government."

"The present charter of Oakland was adopted some sixteen years ago, and at the time of its adoption was considered a good instrument for the then needs of the city. Since that time many advances have been made in the science of municipal government, and it seems high time that we were advancing along the same line."

"Again, our city has grown much larger, and a greater increase still is promised in the immediate future. If the needs of a better charter are pressing upon us, what will they be in a year or two when our population and growth are greatly augmented?"

"One of the most important and necessary changes to be made is in the method of assessing property for revenue purposes. As is well known, we accept the county assessor's valuations, which are made for State and county needs, and without regard for the city's requirements. The county assessor is not a citizen of the city, and the city and the State cannot be expected to look after the interests of all the municipalities in the county in this respect. Our experience in the city of Oakland has been such that we feel certain we can get better results in the revenue department of the government by having an independent assessment made by the city herself."

The news of the world telegraphed direct into THE TRIBUNE office by the Associated Press. TRIBUNE readers get the news 14 hours ahead of the morning papers.

Percy Pembroke must go through a third trial on the charge of having been implicated in the murder of Thomas Cook out at Fruitvale. Owing to the illness of Juror M. Mattos, of Irvington, the second trial was cut off just as the arguments were begun, and the case has been continued for several weeks in the hopes that he would recover sufficiently to allow the trial to proceed. Hopes of this, however, were disappointed this morning when Judge W. L. Waste received a letter from Dr. J. S. Anderson stating that he did not believe that Mattos would ever recover sufficiently to go on with the case. He has lost the ability to concentrate his mind on anything for any length of time and is in a serious condition.

With this state of affairs confronting him, Judge Waste this morning stated that there was nothing to be done but to discharge the jury and begin over again. This will mean practically a third trial for Pembroke. He was tried once and the jury disagreed. His second trial was completed so far as the taking of testimony was concerned. District Attorney Allen having begun his opening argument when the illness of Mattos stopped the proceedings.

The case has been a hard fought one, each trial having consumed several weeks, and attorneys and prisoners and his family are tired out with the days spent under the strain. Attorney L. S. Church has made a hard fight for his client, and District Attorney Allen has been equally vigilant in the prosecution of the case, and both express great disappointment at the waste of their dis-

NEW CARD IS IN EFFECT

CHANGE MADE IN THE TIME OF RUNNING LOCAL TRAINS

The new time card of the Southern Pacific Company for local ferry trains in effect yesterday shows one or two changes in running time.

On the narrow gauge line while there are still two trains an hour as before they do not run thirty minutes apart as heretofore. Now there is only twenty five minutes between two of the trains while thirty-five minutes lapse between the next two.

In other words whereas the former card provided for a train leaving the Fourteenth street station at twenty and fifty minutes after the hour now trains leave that point at eighteen and fifty-three minutes past the hour.

On the local passenger line there is no change.

On the broad gauge line from Alameda and passing the Oakland station at First and Broadway one train hourly each way has been cut off but owing to the use of the horse-drawn service there is practically a train one way or the other not more than twenty minutes apart.

Going to San Francisco by way of Oakland pier a train passes First street and Broadway at thirty-seven and fifty-seven minutes past the hour in the other direction the trains which go through Alameda and then on to Alameda mole, pass First street and Broadway at twenty-nine and forty-nine minutes after each hour.

LEAGUE ISSUES A CIRCULAR

STATE REPUBLICAN CLUBS ANNOUNCE COMING CONVENTION.

The following circular has been issued by the California State League of Republican Clubs:

Active preparations are now in progress for the fifth biennial convention of the California State League of Republican Clubs to be held at Santa Cruz on Monday and Tuesday, May 14 and 15, commencing at 2 p. m. on the first day.

It is proposed to make this the occasion of a jubilee celebration in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the first National Republican Convention which nominated General John C. Fremont of California for President of the United States and followed four years later by the nomination and election of the illustrious Abraham Lincoln.

There is not a principle avowed by the Republican party today which is out of harmony with his teachings or inconsistent with his character.

HAYS' WORDS.

"The event to be celebrated is one of more than ordinary interest, and should arouse no little enthusiasm and insure a large attendance. In the words of the late distinguished Secretary of State, John Hay, everything great done by this country in the last fifty years has been done under the auspices of the Republican party. We of California have special cause to feel a pride in recalling the events of the last half century the struggle to retain California in the union of States her continued growth and success and prosperity and as we recall the political events of our country under Republican administration we should not forget the great Republican statesman, William H. Seward the firm and true friend of California who in his great speech in the United States Senate in 1850 advocating the admission of California into the Union used these prophetic words:

"The unity of our empire hangs on the decision of this day."

"We may justly assert speaking upon the record of promises kept things done words going on and policies outlined that the Republican party has the statesmanship the ability and the will to fearlessly meet and act upon all questions that confront the American people today or that may confront the future in accordance with right and justice to all."

"The Committee of Arrangements has outlined an order of exercises patriotic and interesting—appropriate to the day."

FREMONT'S PORTRAIT

"On the first afternoon will be the presentation of an oil portrait of General John C. Fremont by the Union League Club of Stockton to be followed by greetings to Pioneer Republicans who voted for Fremont in 1856 and for Lincoln in 1860."

Teddy's Terrors of Los Angeles will act as escort of honor.

"The vocal selections will be rendered by the Republican Glee Club of Berkeley."

This will be followed by the President's biennial address.

Communications will be read from prominent leaders of the party to be followed by appointment of committees.

The evening session will be devoted to short speeches by a number of our well known orators who will among other topics review the results achieved under all of the National Republican Administrations from Lincoln to Roosevelt.

TO VETERANS

On the forenoon of the second day the convention will in response to the veterans of the Mexican Civil and Spanish American Wars during which appropriate addresses will be made.

At noon will take place commemorative exercises in honor of distinguished services rendered to the country by departed National and State Republicans.

The afternoon will be set apart for short addresses on general topics reports of committees discussion on organization election of officers election of delegates to the National League Convention which is to meet in Philadelphia, June 17, 18, 19 and to general business.

The sessions of the convention will close in the evening with a social reunion to be tendered to the striding and newly elected officers.

"We are desirous of obtaining with our delay the names and addresses of Pioneer Republicans who voted for Fremont that special invitations may be forwarded to them to attend this convention."

"If you are not a member of a Republican Club in your locality take immediate steps to meet with your friends and neighbors organize a permanent club and elect delegates to the league convention."

THE BELL THEATER

It is hard to decide which is the top-notch act at the Bell Theater this week owing to the unusual excellence of the bill. The whole series of vaudeville turns are strong.

Mario Laurens in her singing, displays a most remarkable control and her notes are clear pure and accurate. A very difficult rendition is her first presentation which gives an idea of the purity of quality of the voice and the ease with which she handles it. Her selection of "Annie Laurie" is probably the best rendered which Bell audiences have listened to. Her mimicry is indescribable and she carries the audience with her from the start.

Re-engagement of Miss Josephine Gassman and her pianistic trio is a good joke. Last week she was great. This week she is even better. If that is he said of a creditable well balanced and catchy act. Another week would be a good suggestion for this turn.

So strong was the subject presented last week in this city in some time by special request she is again to be heard in her wonderful violin performance.

She is an artist of rare merit. Her playing of that difficult composition, "De Biorio's Sixth Air Varié" is a revelation of art and mastery of the violin. The week she has little Stephen Osborne, the boy vocalist, with her to assist in her illustrated work. The act is very strong and deserves much favorable criticism.

The Armstrongs, in a most sensational bicycle act are great, and every part of the turn is good. The graceful and yet wonderful work of these artists creates an applause to the echo.

Riley and La Signe are very good in a singing and comedy turn.

The motion pictures are very interesting.

NOVELTY THEATER

At the Novelty Theater this week an excellent vaudeville program is the offering. It is one of the best balanced bills seen in this city in some time.

It is composed of almost every kind of an act there is on the vaudeville stage.

The performance commences with a comedy by the duo entitled "The Singer and the Statue" done by Perez and King and is excellent in every particular.

Next is followed by an excellent motion picture depicting in vivid realism the eruption of Mount Vesuvius. This picture is most interesting at this time, when the old mountain is once more sending forth its terrible fires of destruction.

The Royal sisters, who are next on the program offer a spectacular dancing act that is certainly a thing of beauty and done to perfection. Virnie R. McPierson the phenomenal ballroom is once again pleasing in the illustrated number and this time has the best song selection yet.

London Blunt is a contentment of the first water and with his act makes an unequalled hit. Raymond Fox, the Merry Minstrel is playing a return date and is again making an immense hit with a lot of new jokes and parodies that send the audience into fits of laughter.

Last night he was forced to respond to encore after encore.

The Wests in their excellent comedy sketch "A Stammered Proposal" made one of the bright hits of the evening and offered one of the best things in this line seen here in a long time.

The program closes with another set of comic motion pictures that sends the audience out with happiness marked upon their faces.

CHILDREN IN FAIRY OPERETTA

Next Friday night in the Macdonough Theater the children of the Fred Finch Orphanage will present the beautiful fairy operetta, "The Enchanted Apple."

The children have been rehearsing for some time under the able direction of the Misses Muriel Damon and Alva Opie and their efforts are well rewarded in the rendering of this production.

The operetta is the story of a little girl, Judith, who lives in a comfortable home, but is discontented and peevish, she has a habit of saying that everything is too bad. Her nurse remonstrates with her in vain. Betsy, a little girl who is being brought up in poverty and hard work in a cottage, appears upon the scene, and Judith wishes she could live Betsy's life. An old woman appears who is a fairy in disguise. Judith and after a conversation gives her an apple which she has only to bite before going to bed and whatever she wishes will happen. Judith bites the apple and the morning finds herself in a fairy-land and reveals herself as a fairy-content and sends Judith home with some good advice.

A chorus of 160 fairies laborers and farm hands accompany the piece. The beautiful scenic arrangements, electrical effects and mechanical devices will be especially interesting to the young.

The benefit is in aid of a new chapel soon to be erected in Fruitvale to which a large amount has been subscribed and work will begin almost immediately. The patrons of the orphanage are Dr. and Mrs. Elsie M. and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Forderer, Rev. and Mrs. Boyard, Rev. and Mrs. Mathew and Rev. and Mrs. John Coyle and others on the board of managers of the orphanage.

The incidents of the day's work are related in detail including beautiful tableaux vivants etc. At eve the old woman finds Judith repentant and her temper cured. She throws her cloak and reveals herself as a fairy-content and sends Judith home with some good advice.

NAME OF POLYTECHNIC HIGH SCHOOL IS CHANGED

Alleged Bad Construction on Market Street Building Causes Board of Education to Stop Payments.

The Board of Education last night ordered all payments on the new school house now in course of construction at Market and Thirty-ninth streets stopped on account of several large cracks being reported in the basement wall; also changed the name of the Polytechnic High School to Manual Training High School, to be effective July 1.

The Board of Education last night changed the name of the Polytechnic High school to that of the Manual Training High school, and with the first of the new fiscal year, which begins with July, the old name will be discarded and the funds apportioned to the school under its new name.

The change was made at the urgent request of the proprietors of the Polytechnic Business College, a private institution conducted at the corner of Twelfth and Harrison streets, the reason given being that the similarity in names had caused confusion in the past, and also a most important one that the public institution was robbing it of pupils attracted to this city through the advertisements paid for by the business college.

FAVORABLE TO CHANGE.

The Board of Education generally was favorable to making the change which, however, met with the strenuous opposition of Director Wood, and in this connection he said:

"I don't understand why we should be called upon to change the name of our school to suit the convenience of private individuals. This name is peculiarly adapted to the kind of a high school we are conducting and I am opposed to making any change until at any rate, one equally good is suggested."

Director Rogers—This board, I believe, should have with pleasure the efforts of any men who will bring an institution of the character of the Polytechnic Business College to this city. The institution is one of the best in the state and its equipment has cost thousands of dollars, and if we can do anything to make its existence more complete I do not believe we should hesitate one moment.

Director Ingler—As I understand it, we took the name after it had been adopted by the business college.

STANDS ON RIGHTS.

Director Wood—I don't believe they have a right to take a name like that to the exclusion of others. This name is used all over the country for schools of this description.

Director Hathaway—I would like to call the attention of the gentleman in charge of the building to the fact that out of twenty-four of the leading schools in the United States teaching these subjects nineteen use the words manual training. This includes the schools of Boston, New York, Washington and other large cities.

Director Redington—We might add commercial school to the words manual training.

Director Clift—I believe this board generally knows what it wants to do and I am in favor of granting these gentlemen's request.

Director Wood—I do not believe manual training high school is a fitting name for our school and I believe we should wait until we can get a better one.

Director Pratt—Personally I should like to show Principal P. M. Fisher the courtesy of asking him what name he would prefer.

Director Crandall—He said that he would be here this evening and I imagine he knew this matter would come up.

Director Ingler—I renew my motion that the name of the school be changed to the Manual Training High school.

The motion was seconded and the vote stood: Ayes—Clift, Crandall, Hathaway, Ingler, Nurnan, Pratt, Rogers and Redington. No—Wood.

TO PURCHASE LAND.

The Committee on School Houses and Sites made the following report, which was adopted:

"Your Committee on School Houses and Sites begs to report that through court proceedings the Board of Education has secured for school purposes a certain piece of land roughly described as follows: Fifty (50) feet fronting on Fifth street, immediately adjoining the Grove street school property. We would recommended that a warrant be drawn in favor of Mrs. Ida Larabee, executrix of the will of Sarah A. Hoskins, deceased, for $400, and that the same be placed in the hands of the District Attorney with instructions to deliver the same to the aforesaid administratrix as soon as the title shall have been transferred to the Board of Education.

"Your committee has inspected the heating apparatus of the Grove street school building, and also the heating apparatus and closet system of the Grant school building. We would recommend that the same be accepted."

BAD CONSTRUCTION.

The fact that there are some large cracks in the new school building at Thirty-ninth and Market streets was called to the attention of the board by Director Ingler, and upon his motion all further payments on the building were stopped until the matter was satisfactorily explained and rectified.

"I believe the weight has been improperly placed or there is some other defect in the work," said Ingler, "and I believe the matter should be thoroughly looked into."

It was agreed that the whole board should pay a visit of inspection to the building some afternoon this week.

STOP ALL PAYMENTS.

The matter was considered of sufficient gravity to warrant the withholding of all further payments until the defect has been rectified. There are several large cracks over the arch in the basement and it is taken as an indication that the building is unsafe.

The Debating Society of the Oakland High and Polytechnic schools was granted the use of the Assembly Hall in which to entertain the semi-annual meeting of the Debating League of California.

MISS SNOOK RESIGNS.

Miss Suede Snook, a teacher of many years' standing in the public schools, sent in her resignation, which was accepted. She had been absent from the schools on a year's leave of absence.

Requests for the insurance on some of the buildings were made by D. W. Ballard, 941 Magnolia street, and J. L. Champlin, 450 Tenth street.

The application of Benjamin Towas for a position as janitor at the Market and Thirty-ninth street school was received and ordered filed.

BURGLARS BUSY THROUGHOUT CITY

Four burglaries were perpetrated Sunday night in different sections of the city and the police believe that the same parties were responsible for all four crimes. W. H. Ingels, residing at 1315 Oak street, reports that glass in his front door was smashed and the key turned in the lock. The burglars then entered the place, ransacked the bureau drawers and secured about $50 worth of jewelry. A search was made for money, but without avail.

Dr. H. B. Carlton, residing at 1435 Webster street, reported that his front door had also been broken and a pair of gold sleeve buttons stolen. A systematic search was made for other valuables but without success.

T. S. Stoker, residing at 875 Washington street, reported that his rooms were entered and two overcoats and one razor stolen.

Mrs. Emma Rhodes, residing at 771 Twenty-first street, reports to the police that her front room was entered Sunday and a thorough search of the house made. The burglars were not successful in finding anything of value.

BARTENDERS TO ENJOY OUTING

The Bartenders International League local 525, is making elaborate preparations for an outing and picnic at Morgan's Park, June 19th. A very enthusiastic meeting was held Wednesday last.

Over one hundred prizes have been donated by the business firms of Oakland. This has been a signal for all hands to get busy, and the various committees and business managers are taxed to their utmost.

The president appointed the following members on picnic committee: Chairman, Charles Gilmarlin. John M. Leavitt, T. J. Burke, D. Eckstrom, Joseph Harris, F. C. Joslyn, D. Ferguson, and floor manager, William Bacon.

The new agreement recently passed by the Labor Council since the affiliation with the State Federation of Labor necessitated unusual activity.

President R. T. Kessler of Babst Cafe, is a hard worker, and the assistance of Business Managers J. M. Leavitt, T. J. Burke and J. L. Brady, has placed No. 525 second to none in the State.

AGAIN VENTURE ON MATRIMONIAL SEA

Samuel McCall and his former wife, Bortha F. McCall, of San Francisco came to Oakland yesterday and secured a marriage license and are going to make another start on the matrimonial voyage.

He gave his age as 46 and the bride gave hers as 35. They had had quarrels that made them get legally separated and get a divorce, but after living apart for a time they have concluded that they know better how to get along in the future.

IN A FIGHT.

Jerry Moore, Alexander Tubman and Arthur Sawyer, who are alleged to have been implicated in an attack on J. W. Baker last Saturday night at the corner of Twenty-ninth street and San Pablo avenue, residing in Baker going to the county infirmary with a broken leg, were arrested yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace. Moore, who is alleged to have broken the leg of the latter, has also been charged with an assault with a deadly weapon.

The cases will not be heard until Baker is out of the hospital. The trouble is alleged to have been caused by drink.

The Horror of the Rich.

That sympathetic friend of the oppressed and downtrodden millionaire, the New York Sun, is shocked that the President should have suggested the advisability of a graduated income tax. Apparently the Sun regards this as novel and revolutionary. Yet we have been discussing the question of an income tax in the United States for more than forty years. Shortly after the war Congress passed an income tax law, and the tax was collected for a short time. In 1894 Congress passed another income tax law, which became unconstitutional because Justice Shiras changed his opinion over night. Consequently the idea of an income tax is neither new nor novel. In nearly every European country a tax on incomes is levied and paid without complaint. In most countries the tax is graduated so as to fall heaviest on those with large incomes. When Congress passed the law of 1894, the New York Sun was fond of calling the income tax a "monarchical tax," apparently on the assumption that any tax levied in a monarchy was necessarily unjust and repugnant to republican institutions. Yet in the republic of France an income tax is levied. About the only thing monarchical the Morgans, Astors, Vanderbilts, Drexels, Goetts and other multi-millionaires, for whom the New York Sun so feelingly and pungently speaks, object to is a tax, and the payment of taxes they are opposed to on principle, whether in a republic or a monarchy. It is a curious fact that the richer a man becomes, and therefore the more able to pay, the more strenuously he objects to paying taxes. When he gets so much money that he cannot spend or count it he regards taxation as downright robbery and evasion of payment as a patriotic, if not a pious duty. Tax dodging is therefore well nigh universal among the American rich, who perjure themselves to defeat the taxgatherer with all the cheerfulness of a clear conscience and devotion to a good cause. Indeed, one of the strongest arguments against the last income tax law was that it would only drive the conscientious overrich to commit still greater perjuries. It is a wonder the New York Sun did not remonstrate with the President for making a suggestion which, if carried out, would lead to the commission of wholesale felony by an estimable class of citizens who will otherwise have a very hard time entering into the kingdom of heaven. In the parable of the Ten Talents, Christ said nothing about paying taxes, but it is presumed that the fellow who got the biggest was exempted from taxation. At least, that seems to be the understanding among the rich men of the present day, who hold to the opinion that the servant who does not increase his store shall have taken from him that which he already hath and be compelled to pay the other fellows' taxes beside.

Not long ago the Fresno Democrat made the surprising announcement that William Travers Jerome, district attorney of New York, is a Republican. It has now followed this up with the equally surprising statement that Joseph A. Filcher, the secretary of the State Agricultural Association, is a Republican. Mr. Filcher is a lifelong Democrat. For many years he owned and edited the Democratic Placer Herald and was elected to the State Senate as a Democrat. Mr. Filcher is also a gentleman and a right good fellow, and is peculiarly fitted for his present position. The Fresno Democrat ought to try and get its facts straight occasionally, and not be forever predicating political editorials on ridiculous blunders.

Scotty says he is tired of the stage. But the public became tired of Scotty first. The horse-marine style of acting very soon loses its charm, even for the pop-eyed readers of dime horrors.

Throttling the Maverick Divorce.

The Federal Supreme Court has taken hold of one end of the divorce question in a way that is likely to cause widespread disturbance, and to seriously interfere with the divorce mills set up in some of the newer States west of the Missouri river. The court has declared void a divorce granted in Connecticut more than thirty years ago and invalidated a subsequent marriage contracted by the husband; that is, to the extent of declaring that the second marriage is not valid in States outside of Connecticut. The validity of the divorce decree and the remarriage remains unquestioned so far as the State of Connecticut is concerned. The Federal court's jurisdiction was limited to passing upon the legality of the divorce and remarriage in other States.

For many years persons dissatisfied with their matrimonial partners have been in the habit of going to some State where divorce is easy and expeditious, going through the form of acquiring a nominal legal residence, having the defendant summoned by publication in some obscure local paper and getting the marital bonds severed after a purely perfunctory hearing. The highest court in the land has now decided that divorces secured in this way are without legal force and effect outside the States in which they are granted. It has laid down the rule that a divorce is not legal in all the States unless both parties to the action are bona fide residents of the State in which the decree is entered.

The effect will be to invalidate thousands of marriages and illegitimate a horde of children. Nevertheless, the principle laid down by the court is a correct one. The Dakota divorce has become a stench in the nostrils of the nation; it is an affront to decency and a travesty on judicial procedure. A husband or a wife journeys from New York to some hamlet in the Far West, obtains a constructive residence at the expiration of a few months, sues for a divorce, gets it on the merest pretense of a showing, and returns to New York to contract another matrimonial alliance. If the seeker for the divorce be a woman, it is frequently the case that the future second husband defrays all the expense of securing a Dakota divorce. The United States Supreme Court puts a heavy foot down on this reprehensible practice by declaring the divorce so obtained to be of no effect in other States.

Of course this decision is going to raise many knotty questions concerning inheritance, property rights and marital rights, but its ultimate effect will be to clear the air and dissipate a fog of collusion, fraud and chicanery. Moreover, it will clear the ground for a reform in our divorce laws, for it lays the foundation for an accord between all the States respecting the granting of divorces.

George F. Weeks, who has owned and edited the Alameda Encinal for the last nine years, has retired from the management of the paper and will go to Mexico to engage in a new field of activity. Charles F. Weeks, son of the retiring editor, and H. R. Taylor, who has been connected with the paper for several years, have taken charge of the Encinal. Mr. Taylor will be editor in chief. This is an assurance that the Encinal will continue to be a well edited, public spirited journal, loyally devoted to local interests and voicing a healthy public sentiment. In his valedictory the elder Weeks says his health is somewhat broken and he feels the necessity for a change of scene and a rest from the continuous labor of making a daily newspaper. Mr. Weeks certainly deserves a rest. He has long been in the harness and represents a clean, honorable type of journalism. He carries with him the good wishes of THE TRIBUNE, which also wishes success to his successors on the Encinal.

The Muckrake Basis of Estimate.

If the President's "Muck-rake" speech does no other good, it will set a good many people reading "Pilgrim's Progress." A good many metaphors and similes applicable to present day political and social conditions will be found in John Bunyan's immortal allegory. Julian Hawthorne says the President's man with the muck-rake is a man of straw. The clergy of the Established Church said the same thing of Bunyan's man with the muck-rake. The truth is, that the man who searches only for muck, whether it be in politics or business, is sure to find it, and to find little else. Like the diamond digger, he never makes an outcry till he has found what he is looking for. It creates a deplorably false impression of public life to tell only of the bad and ignore the good, and it is still worse to magnify and exaggerate the bad while obscuring the better side of public life and public men. We get to seeing things topsy-turvy, and lose all confidence. The President has called for a saner, more discriminating judgment, for a fairer and more truthful statement of facts, a juster, clearer estimate of men and measures. He rebukes wholesale, indiscriminate condemnation, and the habit of drawing the worst conclusions on imperfect or biased information, often on no better ground than a mere difference of opinion. A series of scandalous exposures regarding political and financial methods has set a horde of muck-rakers to work, who are destroying all sense of proportion and vitiating the popular mind by creating the impression that dishonesty is the rule and not the exception in public life, that all honesty is a mere pretense, and that nobody is to be trusted. If this were true, reform would be impossible, for it is no more possible for a rotten society to cleanse itself than it is for a rotten apple to become sound again. The idea that everybody is crooked and watching for a chance to profit by betrayal of public or private trust is a dangerous one. It is the seed of anarchy, the beginning of decay of all morals and all patriotic impulse. Mr. Roosevelt's protest against it is a timely warning to the American people not to take the muck-rake as a basis of estimate for things in general.

A number of liberal donations to the fund for rebuilding the orphanage of the Ladies' Relief Society, recently destroyed by fire, have been received, but only a comparatively small proportion of the necessary amount has been raised. It is pertinent, therefore, to again remind the public of the necessity for coming forward promptly with generous contributions. The home should be rebuilt without delay, and its mission is one that appeals to every noble sentiment in the human breast. In a city so large and so prosperous as Oakland $20,000 ought to be subscribed in a week. It is to be hoped the public spirited and philanthropic will not wait to be importuned, but volunteer contributions in accordance with their means.

KNOWLAND'S GOOD WORK FOR NAVY YARD.

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland has won the gratitude and support of the people of Vallejo by his faithful and energetic work in behalf of the interests of Mare Island Navy Yard, having been successful in his efforts to secure ample appropriations of money from Congress for the repair of various warships, for completing the construction of others and for making provisions for the building of the collier ordered to be built at the yard. Congressman Knowland, although a young man in his first term, is making an excellent record as a representative in the lower house of Congress, ever having in mind the interests and welfare of his constituents throughout the Third District—Solano Republican.

The Supreme Court of the United States is deciding that "I refuse to answer" replies "don't go." And it is proceeding thereby to smoke out the tobacco trust and bring the paper trust to book.—Baltimore American.

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Oakland.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills. Plenty of evidence to prove this.

T. H. Wallace, of 115 Eleventh avenue, Oakland, Cal., says: "It is so long now since I had backache that I have almost forgotten that I ever had it. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me so thoroughly that I have not suffered on this account since I first used them. I had backache by spells for several years, and they were particularly severe when I caught cold. A few days after using Doan's Kidney Pills I no longer had a return of the trouble since. I do not hesitate to advise kidney sufferers to use Doan's Kidney Pills."

THE MORNING AFTER.

O the first of the year is too cold, I fear. For the cause of a true reform. 'Twere better to wait for a later date. When things are a bit more warm.

The trouble that lies in the way of the wise. Who'd leave bad habits behind. Their virtuous snuff is frozen stiff. By the chill of the winter's wind.

The good intent of the righteous bent is nipped by the frosty air. And the new-turned leaf soon comes to grief. And withers beyond repair.

Old Janus bold, with his blasts so cold. Bites deep on the virtuous nose; Reform is lost in the awful frost. That comes with the month of snows.

'Twere better by much to await the touch. Of a genial May-day sun. For a putting on ice your favorite vice. With which at last you are done.

For the tenderest flow'r in nature's bow'r. That time can ever evolve. Is a sturdy oak—and that's no joke—Compared to a good resolve.

And that is why, with the new year by. To my vicious ways I cling. And contra bonos mores go. Till the warmer days of spring. —John Kendrick Bangs in Harper's Weekly.

PERSONALITIES.

One of the boyhood teachers of David Livingstone, the African missionary, is still alive and on active service. He is the Rev. P. B. Caldwell, a member of the Lancashire and Chelsea presbytery in England, 88 years of age. When young man he was a teacher at a school in the neighborhood of Blantyre, Lanarkshire, and among his pupils was young David Livingstone, who used to walk a distance of eleven miles daily to and from school. This remarkable collection of "bulletins" recently appeared in a New Zealand newspaper in a criticism of "King Dick" Seddon, the premier. "Seddon is still sitting on the rail with his ear to the ground waiting to see which way the cat will jump." Middle Butcher, a Swiss, is the first European woman to choose engineering as a profession. She gained a diploma with honor at Lausanne University, being sixth in order of merit. POVERTY SHOULD BE NO BAR TO TRUE HAPPINESS

CHICAGO April 17—A little old woman was trundling a home-made hand cart yesterday along the southern curve of the Lake Shore drive opposite the staring windows of stone mansions. The cart, a large wooden box roughly mounted on a pair of wheels was piled so high with boards and wooden baskets that it quitted the little old woman as she pushed it. "Is't that a rather heavy load for you?" said a tailor-made girl, who lived in one of the stone mansions as the wagon stopped and the little old woman straightened up to rest a minute.

A friendly smile brightened the wrinkled old face in its black worsted hood. "Well, it's heavy when the road's muddy," said the little old woman.

"Where do you find all those boards and baskets?" said the tailor-made girl. "Down there by the lake where they're fillin' in, there's lots of 'em in the loads the men dumps there."

"And how far do you take them?" "Down home, on Cedar street near State."

"Do you make many trips?" said the tailor-made girl.

"Well, I go most every day," said the little old woman. "Ye see, my husband can't work much, and it's hard enough to get a little money together for the rent, an' we can't spare any for coal. My husband he fell down a elevator shaft eight years ago an' broke his legs an' stove in his chest an' he's never worked reglar since."

"But how do you get on?" asked the tailor-made girl.

"The little old woman drew herself up proudly. 'I've done washin' pretty reglar,' she said. 'It comes easy enough in the winter time, but in summer sometimes the work's hard to get. 'But you're pretty old for that,' said the tailor-made girl.

"Well, my son that's up in the mines he thinks he'll come down an' help along."

"And do you manage to be happy?" said the tailor-made girl, with a smile.

"The little old woman returned the smile as she started to push her cart. On yes," she said. "I'm happy."

The tailor-made girl pondered. Finally she opened her little leather handbag, took out a bright piece of silver and ran after the little old woman. "Won't you get something good for dinner with this?" she asked.

But the little old woman's hand fell little hand would not open. No," she said gently. "No keep it. I hope you'll never know the want of money." And she looked almost tenderly at the tailor-made girl, as she bent her back to her load and said good-day.

SYDNEY April 17—An extraordinary scene occurred at St. Mary's Church North Melbourne in connection with a wedding for which all arrangements had been made.

The bride was a young woman of twenty-two, and the bridegroom a State school teacher. Strong objections to the marriage were made by the relatives of the bride but eventually it was decided that the wedding should take place between 6 and 7 o'clock in the morning. The bridegroom anticipating trouble arranged for the attendance of a policeman. When the wedding party arrived they found to their dismay that the clergyman was engaged in earnest conversation with a sister of the bride.

She met the bride at the church door and, clinging to her, besought her to reconsider the step that she contemplated. "For heaven's sake stop!" she cried. The rector called upon the constable to restore order, but matters were made worse by the bridegroom trying to drag his intended wife from the grasp of her sister.

He was unsuccessful and at length the sister catching the others unaware, pushed the bride out of the door and hustled her into a waiting cab, which immediately drove away.

The bridegroom was dumfounded. Raising his hands in an attitude of despair he cried: "I am ruined," and fell unconscious on the church steps.

COAST HAS NEW FEATURE IN GREAT SEA-SERPENT

OCEAN PARK April 17—Ocean Park has a new attraction which undoubtedly outrivals any claimed by other beach cities of the coast. A sea-serpent forty feet in length having a head three feet wide set with two large eyes of a brilliant red, with a row of spikes down the length of its body with claws a foot long and a tail similar to that of a dragon has been sporting about in the surf of this beach for several days past.

Reputable citizens whose veracity has never been doubted assert with emphasis that they saw the huge snake. Frank Saville of Venice is the first who claimed to have seen it, but little credence was given his story at the time.

Left Guthridge, an employee of the Ocean Park bathhouse, now confirms Saville's story.

"I surely saw the animal," he says. "It was forty feet long and when I discovered it was lying quietly in the surf close in to the shore near the foot of Orone avenue. I watched for a moment thinking my eyes deceived me and then the monster moved off to sea swimming rapidly and lashing the water into a white foam with its long tail and wiggling body."

NO BURGLAR IN SHOES: BUT LADIES THOUGHT SO

NEW YORK, April 17—Miss Evelyn Churchill of Troy, N. Y. came to this city yesterday with a young woman friend bent on Easter shopping. They registered at the Hotel Martinique, on Thirty-third street, and were assigned to apartments on the twelfth floor.

After dinner in the hotel restaurant the young women went on to their rooms. Miss Churchill opened her door first. She immediately began to scream. Her companion looked over her shoulder and joined in. A housemaid came running down the hall and added her voice to the chorus. The building echoed with an assorted variety of shrieks.

An elevator boy ran his car half way to the floor, caught the bold burglars, descended and gave the alarm. Somebody telephoned.

Presently a relief party consisting of Detective Brosnan of the West Thirteenth street station, the hotel clerk and all the available hotel porters was on the scene. They found three frantic women located in one another's arms swaying with fright. One of them was pointing tragically to a bed from under which protruded ends of a pair of shoes.

"Where's the burglar?" gasped the detective.

Miss Brosnan mutely pointed to the shoes.

Brosnan lived for them. "Here you, come out," that he roared. "Dye know whose precinct ye're in?"

The shoes made no resistance for they were merely a pair of shoes—harmless, unattached. Brosnan fled from the place a stricken man.

"Ladies," said Clerk Bennett, "every room in this house is provided with a pair of low shoes for the convenience of guests who may have forgotten to bring their own."

DOG PREVENTS HOLD-UP! SAVES MISTRESS' JEWELS!

DURANGO, Col., April 17—"Biddy," a bull-terrier, owned by Miss Besse Rivers saved its mistress from being held up and robbed last night by viciously attacking an unknown man, who forced his way into the Rivers home.

Miss Rivers and her servant were preparing to retire when, without the least warning, a man slipped into the house through the rear door and stepped into the bedroom. The robber wore a mask and carried a big gun in his hands. He pointed the revolver at Miss Rivers and her servant and told them to hold up their hands which they did.

At this juncture Biddy put in an appearance and with almost human intelligence attacked the robber, biting him in the legs growling and barking ferociously all the time. The attack of the dog so enraged the burglar that he twice turned the weapon upon him, but he realized that to shoot would mean detection. Fighting the terrier off, he fled from the house.

There was a large amount of jewelry in the house at the time the burglar appeared, and this no doubt was the reason for the attempted holdup.

FEET TOO SMALL TO SKATE! SAD PLIGHT OF ACTRESS!

LOS ANGELES, April 17—Blanche Hall, leading woman at the Burbank Theater, last night, smiled a sad sad smile in reply to Harry Mettayer's inquiry, "What's the matter?" and replied:

"I cannot learn to skate. Yes, I think I have brains enough, and courage enough, but when I went to the rink this afternoon, they did not have a pair of skates that would fit me."

"Why, Miss Hall," said a reporter "they have skates there large enough for Jim Jeffries."

"But they had none small enough for me," replied Miss Hall. This is a true story, and anyone who recalls the picture of Miss Hall's foot, published last winter in the newspapers will realize that the story must be true.

Now is the opportunity for some enterprising skating rink manager.

CHICAGO, April 17—Steps were taken in the juvenile court today to prevent the marriage of a 16-year-old girl and her stepfather, despite the petition of the girl that she be permitted to become a bride. The girl is Evelyn Rider, who only recently has attained to the dignity of "long dresses." John Guager is her stepfather.

A probation officer brought the girl into court on a charge of delinquency and she was questioned by Judge Mack. She told the court her mother had died two years ago, and that she then went to the home of friends, but soon returned to live with Guager. The court declared the case should be investigated and ordered Guager arrested.

CHICAGO April 17—The dressmakers of Chicago have decided to take steps to protect themselves against women who order $500 worth of Easter gowns and suffer a lapse of memory when the bill is sent to them. The omnipresent "deadbeat" henceforth will be baffled by a system of blacklisting and publicity.

The dressmakers trust is unanimous that the business must be placed on a war footing. Every business has its system for investigating the credit of its patrons except that of dressmaking, said Mrs. Schubert, corresponding secretary. "We must co-operate and boycott the bad customers. We intend to perfect a plan by which no woman who swindles a member of our organization can get a gown made on anything but a strictly cash basis."

PUPILS' UNION TO GO ON STRIKE TO GO TO CIRCUS

HOUSTON, Texas April 17—"Strike for liberty" is the motto of hundreds of school children in this city, who have organized a union and have set April 20 as the date for a general walkout.

And when they walk out it will be out to the circus ground. "We must have holidays on all circus days" is their demand and they have gone systematically about achieving their purpose.

The strike movement was inaugurated after the pupils had asked permission to attend the circus and had been refused by the school board.

Not the board is at a loss to know how to defeat the strike movement, which is formidable and may succeed.

TEN WORDS FOR QUARTER! GIRL SENDS A TELEGRAM!

LOS ANGELES, April 17—The story is current of a young lady who received a proposal of marriage by telegraph. She went to the telegraph office and asked the operator how many words she could send for a quarter. He said ten, and her answer to the proposal was, "Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes."

OAKLAND CIVIC CLUB ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

By HELEN WARWICK.

The Oakland Civic Club met yesterday at 3 o'clock at the club rooms of the Palette, Lyre and Pen Club, and an important business meeting was the order of the day.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Clara Morris, first vice-president, Mrs. S. C. Borland; second vice-president, Mrs. A. B. Thompson, third vice-president, Mrs. Edward Booth, fourth vice-president, Mrs. L. H. Cutting, corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. Kower, recording secretary, Mrs. Francis A. Will-while the executive board is composed of Miss Tyrrell, Mrs. C. A. Bushell and Mrs. L. M. Bonham.

The discussion was resumed in regard to the name of the club, and the former name, "Woman's Civic Improvement Club" was desired by some, while others approved the more terse cognomen, "Oakland Civic Club."

The matter, however, was shelved for further consideration and a later decision.

No paper was read, but Miss Tyrrell, chairman of the tree planting committee, reported a conference with the city officials concerning the appropriation of funds for planting trees in New-

Broadway. She likewise announced that the appropriation had been made and that maple trees will be planted next year.

The need of public playgrounds for the children in vacation time was likewise discussed and it was decided to have the secretary, Mrs. Kower, communicate with the City Council, asking that Bushrod Park be made into such a recreation spot.

The plans to be submitted in regard to the fountain design are requested to be in by June 15, for the club's inspection.

The club will meet May 7, May 21 and June 4 and 18.

WIDOW'S CARD OF THANKS

A newly made widow of Geary county sent this card of thanks to the Junction City Republic for publication.

"I desire to thank my friends and neighbors most heartily in this manner for the united aid and co-operation during the illness and death of my late husband who escaped from me by the hand of death on Friday last while eating of death. To the friends and all who contributed so willingly toward making the last moments and funeral of my husband a success I desire to remember most kindly, hoping these few lines will find them enjoying the same blessing. I have a good milk cow and roan gelding, 8 years old, which I will sell cheap. God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform. He plants his seed in the soil, and rides upon the storm, also a hawk and white dove, very low."—Emma City Journal.

HAS FINE STOCK WITH HIM

ARABIAN HORSE AND RAMBOU-ILLET SHEEP WITH C. COOK FROM WYOMING.

HAYWARD, April 17.—Charles Cook and family have arrived from Wyoming and purchased a place in Castro valley through John Rogers. Mr. Cook brought with him from Wyoming an Arabian horse which has been his faithful servant in many travels. He also brought him prize Rambouillet sheep. One lamb born on the way here arrived in good condition. This breed of sheep is considered a most profitable one for both wool and meat. He also brought some prize chickens and turkeys.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.
The erection of the Bank of Hayward's new building is proceeding with commendable speed.

Thomas Gibson has secured the contract for painting and papering the Hayward Hotel, the annex and the various cottages about the grounds. Ten men were put to work on the annex last week. The contract calls for high class work only.

The Methodist Church has been kal-somined and grained.

DIAMOND PEOPLE ORGANIZE

FORM IMPROVEMENT CLUB AND DISCUSS TAXATION FOR FIRE APPARATUS.

DIMOND, April 17.—A number of citizens of Northern Fruitvale met on Saturday evening, April 14, and formed what is to be known as the North Fruitvale Improvement Club. The object of the club is the promotion of the best interests of this community. Another meeting of the club was held Monday evening, in Upper Fruitvale Hall, when the subject of the "proposed tax on Fruitvale fire district for the purpose of buying apparatus for Lower Fruitvale" was discussed. The meeting was quite well attended, and the general feeling expressed was that such a tax had not done Dimond section any good in the past, nor would be likely to do it any good in the future, principally on account of lack of water supply. Other ideas which also influenced the decision were that the high school tax must be voted anyway, and that it was only a question of a short time when this part of Fruitvale would go into Oakland, in order to get efficient fire protection, if nothing else, and in view of all these things the tax proposed to be levied in Fruitvale for fire purposes would be better avoided altogether. The officers of the club are Dr. R. L. Jupp, president; R. G. Johns, vice-president; D. P. Decker, secretary.

ALAMEDA TRUSTEES HOLD A MEETING

Pass Slot Machine Matter Up to Chief of Police for Action.

ALAMEDA, April 17.—The Board of City Trustees held its regular meeting last night in the council chambers at the City Hall. Much routine business was disposed of and then the matter of the operation of slot machines in the Island City was considered. The city clerk read the opinion of City Attorney M. W. Simpson, wherein he classifies slot machines as gambling devices and contrary to the law of the State of California. Trustee Joseph Forderer said on his feet immediately with a motion to the effect that since these machines, in the opinion of the city attorney, were illegal that the matter should be referred to the chief of police and if the machines should be found to be gambling devices they should be abolished. The motion was seconded by President Gorham. When a consideration of the question came up "Trustee M. Bowers said:

"Nonethers in the Penal Code is the word 'gambling' defined. This matter of a trade machine has been up in every city about the bay. Now, don't understand me as defending a gambling device. I am simply speaking from a business and commercial standpoint. We have had a great deal of agitation in our city in the past month or so. Someone has with a 'muckraker' been stinging up filth, the stench of which is almost unbearable, yet this someone has not removed the rubbish.

MUST INDULGE.
"I do not believe in tolerating trade. The playing of slot machines is a pleasure that people will indulge in. The opinion from the city attorney is an opinion of one not in a position to hand out the law. We must go to a higher source."

Trustee Fritz Boehmer spoke of the gambling that goes on behind the closed doors of the rich, and classed slot machines as the amusement of the poor man. The motion of Mr. Forderer was passed by four affirmative votes, Trustee Boehmer refusing to vote.

LAID OVER.

W. H. H. Hart, representing the Morgan people, applied for a franchise for a railroad to run from the northwest point of Bay Farm Island to San Francisco. The matter was laid on the table until the next meeting of the board. A petition by L. W. Schroeder Jr. to maintain a baseball park at the foot of Sherman street on the estuary shore was granted by the board.

In adjourning last night Trustee Probst made a motion that the body adjourn out of respect to the memory of the late Frank K. Millington, who recently passed away at Stockton, and who was Alameda's first city clerk.

MISSING MAN IS HOME AGAIN

SAN LEANDRO'S WANDERER FROM HIS WIFE AND FAMILY RETURNS.

SAN LEANDRO, April 17.—Charles Kipler, the engineer of the Best Manufacturing Works who disappeared from his home a week ago last Friday, has returned. He came Sunday.

His story is this. When he got to Embarcadero on the electric car the Friday evening in question, having told his wife he was going to fix an engine for a man named Smith, he says he felt a strange impulse to continue right on into Oakland, which he did. He then had $20 in his pocket. At Oakland he met some men he knew and they had a few drinks together, after which he suddenly lost consciousness and knew no more until he awoke in Redding, Tehama county, with but $2 in his pocket.

He then hunted up a few more friends whom he knew and had a few drinks with them, after which he did not have any money left.

Then he hunted up some odd jobs, and having done them and secured what was coming to him, he took a freight train back home.

EASTER.

Easter was fittingly and well observed in San Leandro. At the Presbyterian Church there were musical selections of unusual merit, solos, duets, quartets and choruses. The large chorus choir and the splendid quartet choir of the evening each gave programs that added joy to the happy Easter day.

At the Methodist Church at 7:30 p. m. an Easter missionary concert was given by members of the Sunday school and their friends. Miss Huettis Lynch of Oakland, with Mrs. Fisher as accompanist, rendered an Easter solo. Recitations and songs by the children and the opening of the Sunday school missionary boxes were interesting features of the exercises.

THROWN FROM BUGGY.

Joseph B. Ross, living on Hayward avenue near Knox avenue, was thrown from his buggy by the running of his team into a telegraph pole near his home Sunday. Two of his teeth were knocked out and his lip and ear were injured. He was taken to the County Infirmary by a passing automobile, where his wounds were dressed, and he walked home. He was reported by parties at the Junction saloon as having died at the hospital.

RACE MEETING AT PLEASANTON

TRYOUTS, PRELIMINARY TO BIG AFFAIR WHICH IS TO CLOSE SEASON.

PLEASANTON, April 17.—The day was a perfect one for horse racing on Saturday when the first meeting of the new Pleasanton Jockey Club was held at this famous track.

The races were simply tryouts, preliminary to the big meeting to be held by the club on the 25th of this month, and were held for the purpose of being able to properly classify the horses for that event than anything else. The three numbers in the race were a free-for-all 2:30 class and a 2:15 class, all mixed pacers and trotters.

The first race was won by William Machado's Charlie in two minutes after Fred (Llewellyn) Byron Lane had taken the first heat.

The 2:30 class race was won by Col. J. C. Kippen's Charlie in two minutes after Dr. McLaughlin, who drove Kelley, and Thomas Roman, who drove Antoinette, in straight heats. The third race was won by Dr. McLaughlin, who drove Mr. Young.

Preparations are now in foot for the meeting on the 25th and it is expected that it will be a good one. The club has engaged music and at it will be the last appearance of many of the horses before they go East to fill their engagements, much interest will be taken in the meet.

POWELL FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late J. O. Powell, who died suddenly on Friday morning from a gripe, was held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Masonic Hall, of which Mr. Powell was a member, attended in a body. The Rev. E. D. Avery read the funeral service. The choir, composed of Mrs. Rose C. Arnold, Mrs. Bruce Eickart, J. A. Bannister and Fred Searcy, sang "Sun of My Soul," "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Just as I Am." The interment was in I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

TO ENTERTAIN.

Mrs. Lee Wells will entertain the Home Missionary Society this afternoon in the Presbyterian Church parlors.

EASTER SERVICES.

Easter services were well attended, both morning and evening, in the Presbyterian Church, where the church was beautifully decorated with branches of white roses, palm leaves and calla lilies. A beautiful large cross of calla lilies and evergreens died one corner of the rostrum. The musical services of the evening were as follows:

Hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name"; anthem, "Praise Ye the Father," choir; scripture reading, "Christ Arose," quartet and chorus, quartet consisting of Miss Winifred Gentry, Mrs. Gentry, Mr. Searcy and Mr. Bannister; solo, "Resurrection," J. A. Bannister; offertory by choir, "Lift Your Glad Voices," sermon, Dr. E. D. Avery; prayer by choir, "The Day of Resurrection," hymn, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

NOTES.

Mrs. Nick Bernal of Alameda, spent Easter Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. E. U. Avery and Miss Jennie Avery will spend part of the week in San Francisco.

Fat Callan of San Ramon is in town.

GRANTED FRANCHISE.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 17.—The Portland & Seattle Railway Company was today granted a franchise permit for the building of a bridge over the Willamette river about three miles north of this city. The matter has been under discussion for several weeks, and agreement was reached only today. The bridge is to be of the swinging draw type, with two openings of 430 feet each. The draw itself will be 510 feet long.

U. H. S. NO. 4's PUPILS SHOW THEMSELVES PROFICIENT IN BOTH LINES.

MELROSE, April 17.—At Settlement Hall, a beautiful homelike hall which hides itself away in the quiet neighborhood of Dennison and Kennedy streets, just south of the railroad at Twenty-third avenue, on Saturday evening last the Athletic Association of Union High school No. 4 gave a little burlesque and drama called "The Business Meeting," with additional numbers, that took high rank for dramatic perfection. It was played by girls only, a dozen or so, all from the senior class. Taking a short play by Carlo Bates as a skeleton, the girls, under the tutelage of Miss McMillan, had given it the flesh and blood and warmth and life of local hits until its author would scarcely have recognized it. They played it to perfection.

In addition there were equally good numbers by the Fruitvale Mandolin Club, recitations by Miss Swine of Oakland, "Mrs. Caysey on Lawn Tennis" and "When My Dollie Died," an original monologue by a young pupil of the High school, quite equal to most of that heard in the theaters, and several songs by a timekeeper at Leona Heights—all very much appreciated by an audience that netted the association some $50, the expenses all having been paid by the advertising in the program.

All the arrangements for the entertainment, the procuring of the advertising, and so forth, were made by Walter Harp, one of the High school students, and were certainly creditable to him.

The quarter card original art advertisements for the entertainment were by Otto Werum and Harry Bundy, members of the art class of the High school, and showed perfect finish.

NEW TERMINUS.

On and after Saturday, April 21, the terminus of the California Railway line for Mills College and Leona Heights will be at Sather station on the Southern Pacific railway in Melrose district, instead of at Twenty-third avenue station. Passengers from Oakland and Alameda should take the Hayward line to the junction or crossing of the East Fourteenth street and California Railway.

Passengers from San Francisco to points west of the Hayward electric line should leave the Southern Pacific Company's train at Melrose instead of at Twenty-third avenue.

KNOCKED DOWN BY HORSE

27 STITCHES NEEDED TO REPAIR FRANK GOMEZ SOUSA.

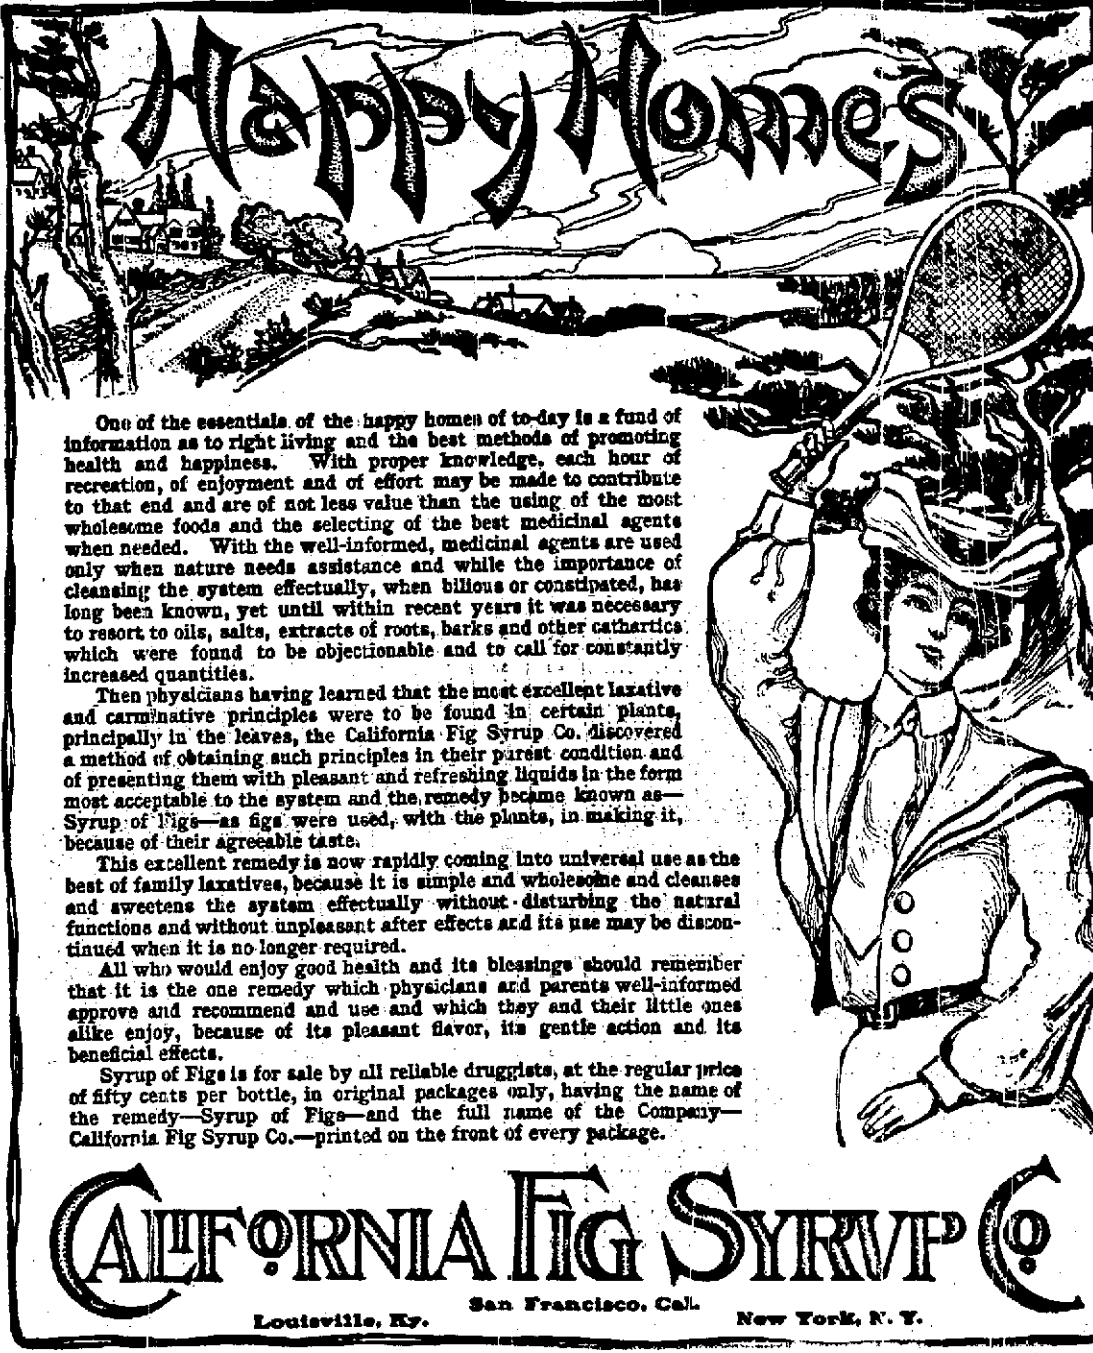

FRUITVALE, April 17.—Frank Gomez Sousa, an employee of the Southern Pacific railway living at Third avenue in Oakland, was struck by a horse and buggy on East Fourteenth street near High street, Sunday, and knocked unconscious. His nose was split and his face badly gashed. He was attended by Dr. Joseph Hamilton of High street, who had to take twenty-seven stitches to close up the wounds.

MANY INQUIRIES.

There are a great many inquiries nowadays from persons who arrive in Fruitvale on the Hayward electric line as to whether the Fruitvale avenue cars are running or not. This state of uncertainty arises from the fact that the avenue cars no longer run so as to connect with the Fruitvale or Melrose local, but rather with the Alameda local train. In fact, the avenue cars run only every twenty minutes now, whereas they formerly ran every ten minutes.

NEW DEPOT.

The new Southern Pacific depot has the roof on, and is rapidly arriving at completion, and the really mammoth masonry building of the Code-Portland independent canning company alongside the Southern Pacific railroad is also rapidly getting to a condition where it will make its mark on the landscape.

One of the essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a fund of information as to right living and the best methods of promoting health and happiness. With proper knowledge, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and are of not less value than the using of the most wholesome foods and the selecting of the best medicinal agents when needed. With the well-informed, medicinal agents are used only when nature needs assistance and while the importance of cleansing the system effectually, when bilious or constipated, has long been known, yet until within recent years it was necessary to resort to oils, salts, extracts of roots, barks and other cathartics which were found to be objectionable and to call for constantly increased quantities.

Then physicians having learned that the most excellent laxative and carminative principles were to be found in certain plants, principally in the leaves, the California Fig Syrup Co. discovered a method of obtaining such principles in their purest condition and of presenting them with pleasant and refreshing liquids in the form most acceptable to the system and the remedy became known as—Syrup of Figs—as figs were used, with the plants, in making it, because of their agreeable taste.

This excellent remedy is now rapidly coming into universal use as the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually without disturbing the natural functions and without unpleasant after effects and its use may be discontinued when it is no longer required.

All who would enjoy good health and its blessings should remember that it is the one remedy which physicians and parents well-informed approve and recommend and use and which they and their little ones alike enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all reliable druggists, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, in original packages only, having the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs—and the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

BOWLING TOURNEY NEARING ITS CLOSE

The Alameda County Bowling Association's tenth tournament is fast drawing to a close. This week marks its final, according to schedule, but there are quite a few postponed games yet to be rolled off, which will, of course, delay the final game for some time. According to the schedule, the concluding game of the second half is to be played on next Friday night, April 18, but according to the present outlook the last game will not be played for a couple of weeks.

In the first place there are one whole week's games yet to be settled, which were dropped by the executive committee in order to give a chance to the teams to catch up on the many postponed games. This was during the week from Monday, March 19, to Friday, March 23, inclusive. It has now been decided by the committee that the games thus dropped out will be played next week, on the same days of the week as originally scheduled, though of course those in which the Palace, Broadway and Eagle figured will not be contested as these teams were dropped from the tournament.

After that there will still be the other postponed games remaining unplayed, and though an attempt has been made to get those in before the date set for the final, it is not likely that this will be accomplished, and this will carry the tournament over into the week following. Secretary Parker has prepared another list of the standing of the teams, revised to April 14, and with the games played between the Palace, Broadway and Eagle teams eliminated. It should be stated, however, that this standing does not include either of three games played between the Nonpareils No. 2 and the Zingus No. 2, the Oakland and the Just Us, and the Lorins and the Just Us, as the reports for the same have not been sent to the secretary, though this omission does not materially affect the standing, which is as follows:

HEESEMAN'S SNATCH A GAME FROM PRESIDIOS

The clever Heeseman baseball team was victorious over the Presidio State League team last Sunday by a score of 2 to 1. The Heesemans were strengthened by the addition of Al Poulter on first base and Tay Streib in the outfield. The principal feature of the game was the clever twirling of Jack Flynn, which aided by his perfect fielding and hard hitting at the bat, helped win the game for his club.

Davy Walhouse was also conspicuous by his hard hitting. Jack Sylva, Ginger Bull, Al Poulter, Eddie Murphy and Charlie Pingree all did some tall fielding, and Sylva knocked out a home run with two men on bases in the eighth inning, which won the game.

It all happened in this manner: Flynn, the first man up, lined out a two-bagger, and Murphy singled. Murphy stole second, which left the Heesemans with a man on second and one on third, with nobody out. Then Jack Sylva stepped to the plate with his trusty stick and banged out a home run. The following is the score of the game:

ROCKENFIELD ELITES WALK OFF WITH VICTORY

SEATTLE, April 17.—Like Rockenfield is to play second base for Seattle. Rockenfield has received his transportation and will join the Elites in Los Angeles, getting into the game next week. When Rockenfield was found late last night he said: "Yes, it is true that I have come to terms with Russ Hall and shall join the Seattle team in Los Angeles as quick as I can get there."

The addition of Rockenfield will strengthen the infield materially. He is one of the best players that this city ever turned out, and has about as many friends here as the redoubtable Bill Hurley. He commenced playing ball at the old Madison street grounds in the days when the famous Bill Lange was the center of attraction. He was a member of the famous local team known as the Nonpareils, and from this beginning drifted into the professional game. He has played in several cities in the Pacific Northwest, and last year was a member of the St. Louis American club.

The Elite baseball team of Berkeley won the first game it played this season from the Enterprise of Richmond. Sunday, by the score of 11 to 3. The feature of the game was the splendid pitching of Wilson, who struck out thirteen and walked none. Johnson of the Enterprise struck out four and walked three.

YOUNG BASEBALL PLAYERS IN SWEEPING CHALLENGE

One of the strongest of the younger baseball teams this season is that of "The Hub." Having played four games so far and being yet undefeated, Captain Robert Harvey is out with a sweeping challenge. He wants to pit The Hubs against any team whose members are 16 years of age or under, no nine excepted. The Hubs have a strong aggregation and certainly play ball. The team has met and defeated Ye Liberties, 17 to 13; the Sky Scorpers, 9 to 4; the Young Butlers, 21 to 15; and the Tompkins, 14 to 2.

From the line-up of these youngsters they ought to give a good account of themselves. The Hubs are trying to go through the season with a goose egg under the "games lost" column and the nine that defeats them will have to do some fast ball playing.

The Hubs have new suits, furnished by A. Jones of The Hub Clothing Company, and are open for any challenge from this date.

BANKERS WILL ENGAGE IN WALKING CONTEST OVER FOOTHILLS.

Ed Walter and Frank Mayer, two prominent officials of the First National Bank, will next Sunday morning test their skill as pedestrians. For some time past there has been a keen friendly rivalry between the two as to their ability as pedestrians, hence the match race next Sunday.

The start will be made at 9:30 from Mill Valley, thence to Dip-sea, a distance of nine miles, over steep hills and rough roads.

The loser is to pay for a dinner for the employees of the bank. It is understood that each of the contestants has trained for the event and that each is in condition to cover the ground in record time.

quite a delegation of Oakland's young business men will be on hand to cheer their favorites on to victory.

FIGHT HARD IN MATCH BERGER WITH JACK O'BRIEN

SAFETY. April 17.—A meeting of the "fight trust" was called for 9 o'clock last evening, but it was 1:30 when the president and the secretary appeared at the meeting place. There were no signs of Coffroth and Willie Britt appearing, so the president, E. M. Graney, called the meeting to order.

Graney did most of the talking, but it was apparent that Morris Levy, the only other attendant, was in deep sympathy with him.

"Mr. Levy, will you please take the chair," said the president, Mr. Levy, who was standing, made believe that he was in the chair, and Mr. Graney proceeded. "I move that this association match Sam Berger and 'Philadelphia' Jack O'Brien to box before the Associated Athletic Club in the month of May. Jack O'Brien, manager of O'Brien, is here and is willing to sign for his man. Berger, I understand, has agreed to box O'Brien, and I can see no reason why we should not proceed with the match."

The vote was unanimous. Cribbens wanted to know if he would be safe in asking O'Brien to come to the coast, as he did not want to have the Quaker boxer come out here and find that there was "nothing doing."

Graney and Levy assured him that there was no chance of anything happening to prevent the bout.

Cribbens was further assured that Berger would agree to the match, and to make sure, Levy was authorized, in case of Berger's failure to sign, to match O'Brien with Tommy Burns or anybody else who would make a good card.

The meeting then adjourned, and Levy started out at once to draw up the articles.

LUNDIE BEATS KRANTZ IN THIRD

SEATTLE, April 17.—Bobbie Lundie was too clever, too fast and too strong for Kid Krantz, and in a bout down on the cards for twenty rounds the San Francisco boy last night dropped his man in the third. Lundie took command from the start and had things entirely his own way to the finish.

SAYS WHEELER FORCED RUGBY

BerkeleyMan's Accusation at Meeting.

BERKELEY, April 17.—The University student body, disgusted by the authorities' action in going away with the American game of football, and substituting in its place the Rugby article, held a mass meeting at 4 o'clock in North Hall yesterday.

Sensational statements were made by Captain Roy Elliott, of the University football team, regarding the methods employed by the authorities to procure a unanimous vote in favor of Rugby, from the sub-committee of California and Stanford men which reported recommending the dropping of the old game from the list of college athletics.

Captain Elliott openly charged President Wheeler with forcing Rugby upon the students, declaring that President Wheeler had informed him of the receipt of a note from President Wheeler, during the sub-committee's consideration of the football matter, in which Gray was advised that it would be "Rugby or nothing."

The University next year. Unwilling to incur the anger of the University powers, Prentiss Gray voted for the abolishing of the American game, though deeply opposed to the move.

PRENTISS GRAY, WHO SAYS HE VOTED FOR RUGBY UNDER PRESSURE FROM PRESIDENT WHEELER.

EXPLAINS VOTE.

This explanation of Gray's vote in the matter was made, supposedly, to explain the inconsistency involved in his present attitude and the vote. Gray now is quoted as being strongly against Rugby. He was not present at the meeting yesterday afternoon. Captain Elliott apparently being authorized to represent and speak for him.

The meeting was attended by a majority of the more influential men of the student body. The proceedings were secret, no outsiders being admitted.

Edgar Stowe, a well known football man, brother of the football hero, "Sam" Stowe, was chosen chairman of the mass meeting. He asked for speeches from representative students, and Reginald Kirtland, Roy Pilcher, R. Foster, and Captain Elliott then spoke. Their addresses were all of the same import, all against Rugby, all in favor of the old game of football as played for so many years at the University.

Chairman Edgar Stowe, as a result of the mass meetings, was empowered

WILL COST MONEY.

The committee will inform President Wheeler that if Rugby is played, $4000 will have to be spent in changing the width of the new California football field. The Associated Students are now in debt $6000. The committee will ask that in view of these facts the change to Rugby be not made for at least a year, when the debt of $6000 may be paid off.

If the University authorities, despite this petition of the students, insist upon Rugby football, the faculty will be asked to assume the debt now charged to the Associated Students, as was done at Northwestern University in Illinois.

President Wheeler is now in Texas, where he went last Saturday to deliver the principal address at the inauguration of President Houston of the University of Texas. He will return next Tuesday, April 24, and will be waited upon by the student committee, regarding football.
